

Herzog, Scott A.

Scott Anthony Herzog, 48, of Pigeon, died at home Sunday, Feb. 8, 2009 of a heart attack.

Scott was born May 10, 1960 in Pigeon to Patricia (Nixon) and the late Vincent Herzog.

He attended Laker Schools, graduating in 1978. Scott has worked at Active/Tower Automotive in Elkton as a machinist for 30 years.

"Anything with a motor and a throttle that burns gas and goes fast" describes Scott's interests, whether it was a car, motorcycle or a snowmobile. He also enjoyed SCUBA diving, in particular off Bimini Island in the Bahamas, and taking care of his home near Mud Creek. But his greatest love was for his family, especially his granddaughter.

He is survived by his son, Brandon (Noelle Looney) of Lewiston and daughter Lindsay (David Reibling) of Elkton; granddaughter Klaire Reibling; mother Patricia Herzog of Pigeon; siblings, Michele Kenway of Sparta, Alanna (James) Lackie of Pigeon, Robert (Tracy) of Pembroke Pines, Fla., Eric (Deb) of Bay Port, Jacqueline Jett of Canton, and Jonathan (Renee) of Pigeon; and many other extended family.

He was preceded in death by his father Vincent Herzog.

Funeral services will be at 2 p.m. Saturday, Feb. 14, 2009 at the Champagne Funeral Chapel of Caseville with the Rev. Karen Bourverette officiating. Burial will be in Grandlawn Cemetery.

Visitation will be from 2 to 9 p.m. Friday and one hour prior to the service on Saturday at the funeral home.

Memorials may be made to the Caseville Community Christmas Fund. Condolences may be shared at www.cfcCaseville.com
