

Just Today

Rachael Martin 3.10.15

Just today: I will purpose to do all that I can. I will do my best in each area that needs my attention and to seek the Lord with each step and allow Holy Spirit to lead me by not becoming anxious.

Just today: I will not make myself antsy about the things on my calendar for tomorrow or the rest of the week, I will breathe deeply and thank Jesus throughout my day.

Just today: I will take a few minutes to pray for Israel, the leaders in the world and in my church, and my family and friends.

Just today: I will keep my eyes away from evil things, I will keep my eyes on things that will edify my spirit man and encourage me to operate in righteousness.

Matthew 6:34 – Give your entire attention to what God is doing right now, and don't get worked up about what may or may not happen tomorrow. God will help you deal with whatever hard things come up when the time comes.

Just today: I will look for an opportunity to give to something or someone less fortunate.

Just today: I will not back down from speaking the name of Jesus over any situation.

Just today: I will love as deep, as long, and as wide as I can.

Just today: I will worship the Lord with my thoughts, my words, and my actions. I will choose to speak life and not death and I will give faith a chance to work instead of doubting.

Just today: I will rejoice that Jesus is coming back and I will seek more and more to make myself ready for Him.

2 Peter 3:11-14 – Since everything here today might well be gone tomorrow, do you see how essential it is to live a holy life? Daily expect the Day of God, eager for its arrival. The galaxies will burn up and the elements melt down that day—but we’ll hardly notice. We’ll be looking the other way, ready for the promised new heavens and the promised new earth, all landscaped with righteousness. So, my dear friends, since this is what you have to look forward to, do your very best to be found living at your best, in purity and peace.

Be blessed today!
