Conquered by General Pompey in 63 BC, it came under Roman rule and was one of the ten great Roman cities. Known at that time as Gerasa, the site is now generally acknowledged to be one of the best preserved Roman provincial towns in the world.

📍 Petra

DAY 10, Wednesday, April 13

Depart for Petra

After breakfast, check out of your hotel and head to Petra via the desert highway. Perhaps the words of Dean Burgon's famous poem: 'Match me such a marvel save in Eastern clime / A rose-red city half as old as time...' reflect some truth about Petra. Yet words can hardly do justice to the true magnificence that is Petra. Some archaeologists have ranked ancient Petra as the eighth wonder of the ancient world – a truly justifiable claim. This remote dead city is one of the great archaeological treasures in the world, undoubtedly; it is the most important and famous attraction of Jordan. Much of Petra's appeal comes from its awesome, multicolored sandstone high mountains; it is a secluded site of steep rocky slopes, towering craggy mountain tops and high cliffs, into which most of the celebrated tombs, facades, theatres, and stairways are carved. Nature and architecture combine to give a mythical aura to the site.

Lunch and dinner will be provided today.

Check into the Movenpick Hotel later today and overnight. Rooms have a minibar, hairdryer, safe, coffee/tea maker, AC, free Wi-Fi & onsite dining. The hotel has an onsite fitness and wellness center.

This evening you are all invited to meet with Stephanie Altwassi from A Piece of Jordan. A Piece of Jordan is a community project – with a branch in both Jordan and the UK. With the unrest in the Middle East and the media coverage of the area, Jordan often gets painted with the same brush. A Piece of Jordan is working hard to show the real Jordan, the Jordan where people of all faiths live together, a Jordan that welcomes visitors from all walks of life and ensures they feel at home. A Piece of Jordan wants to challenge the media stereotypes of the Middle East – one project at a time.

Overnight: Movenpick Petra (or similar)
Included meals: Breakfast, Lunch & Dinner

📍 Wadi Rum & Dead Sea

DAY 11, Thursday, April 14

Depart to Wadi Rum & Dead Sea

After breakfast, depart to Wadi Rum, a stupendous, timeless place, virtually untouched by humanity and its destructive forces. Here, it is the weather and winds that have carved the imposing, towering skyscrapers, so elegantly described by T.E. Lawrence as “vast, echoing and god-like”. A maze of monolithic rock-scapes rise from the desert floor to heights of 1,750 meters creating a natural challenge for serious mountaineers. Hikers can enjoy the tranquility of the boundless empty spaces; explore the canyons and water holes to discover 4000-year-old rock drawings and the many other spectacular treasures this vast wilderness holds in store. Enjoy a 1.5-hour Jeep touring in a local Bedouin Jeep.

Lunch will be provided at Wadi Rum.

Proceed to the Dead Sea. At 410 meters below sea level, the Dead Sea is the lowest place on earth. Jordan’s Dead Sea coast is one of the most spectacular natural and spiritual landscapes in the world and it remains as enticing to international visitors today as it was to kings, emperors, traders, and prophets in antiquity. The main attraction of the Dead Sea is of course the soothing, abnormally salty water itself. The salt content of the water is 31.5% making the water so buoyant that it is impossible for visitors to sink. The water also contains 21 minerals including high levels of magnesium, sodium, potassium, and bromine and 12 of these minerals are found in no other body of water in the world.

Dinner will be provided at the hotel this evening.

Enjoy some free time to explore the beautiful grounds this evening. The Hilton is located at the lowest point on earth, over 1,312 feet below sea level. Time permitting use the spa or other amenities like the infinity pools, mud baths or wander to the beach.

Overnight: Hilton Dead Sea (or similar)

Included meals: Breakfast, Lunch & Dinner

📍 Amman

DAY 12, Friday, April 15
