

Can My Gift Really Make a Difference?

Yes, your gift will support an organization that is dedicated to saving the stray and abused animals of Romeoville and close neighboring cities.

* We have some of the lowest administration costs of many charitable organizations. 100% percent of our donations go directly to the animals.

*We are a recognized 501(c) 3 Public Charitable Organization.

*Established in 2009, we have grown to have saved over 200 pets to date and are continuing to grow.

*We offer humane education and low cost services in addition to our animal saving activities.

*All financial reports are accessible to the public and can be found at our website, www.romeovillehumanesociety.org, or by calling 877-813-7300.

Romeoville Humane Society would like to thank you in advance for remembering the animals in the community by including them in your will.

How Can You Continue to Leave a Legacy That Helps Your Community's Animals After You Are Gone?

Romeoville Humane Society

Thank you for considering the Romeoville Humane Society in your Will as a way to continue to help animals in your memory.

Your will is much more than a legal document. It provides you with an opportunity to make a statement about your beliefs and values.

Being a part of a local animal protection project, Romeoville Humane Society is a leader in the education of the community and in the rescue of stray and abused animals.

A bequest to Romeoville Humane Society is an easy way to continue to protect animals and the planet long into the future.

If you have any questions, please don't hesitate to call anytime at 877-813-7300 and a representative will return your call immediately.

Again, everyone here at the Romeoville Humane Society thanks you for your generosity and any contribution you make to the cause.

Legal Advice is the Key!

It is important to seek qualified legal advice when preparing your Will. Wills are very important legal documents and it is vital that the document you create reflects your intentions correctly and is legally binding.

Over one third of Americans do not have a Will. Without one, your estate is divided up using a legal formula that may not reflect your final wishes.

I am sure you have worked hard throughout your life and it is too important to let strangers decide who should benefit from your life's work.

You and your attorney may find the following clause helpful in preparing your Will.

"I bequeath the sum of $ _____ (or what ever type of bequeath you feel appropriate to your situation) to The Romeoville Humane Society for it's general purposes and declare that the receipt of the Treasurer for the time being of the Romeoville Humane Society shall be complete discharge to my executors in respect of any sum paid to the Romeoville Humane Society."

Your Options:

Your Will is probably the most important document you will ever sign. It will have a lasting impact on your loved ones and to the ones in the community you wish to benefit. There are a few different options for leaving a charitable bequest and you should consider these carefully:

- *A specific cash amount;
- *A percentage of the total value of your estate;
- *A specific gift of real estate, stock, shares, bonds, etc;
- *A residual gift which enables you to provide specific amounts for family and friends with the remainder being distributed to the charities of your choice.

If you decide to leave a gift to the Romeoville Humane Society it is important that the correct wording be used in your Will to avoid confusion. Please contact your attorney to insure your final wishes are carried out in the manner you intend.
