Book Club

Raney is a small-town Baptist. Charles is a liberal from Atlanta. And RANEY is the story of their marriage.

Charming, wise, funny, and truthful,
it is a novel for everyone to love.

"This book is too good to keep to yourself. Read it aloud with someone you love, then send it to a friend. But be sure to keep a copy for yourself, because you'll want to read it again and again."

Elizabeth Forsythe Hailey

"A real jewel."

RICHMOND TIMES-DISPATCH

Book Club will meet at Jefferson Roadhouse on April 13, 2023, at 4:30 pm
Our Host will be sweet and kind.

“Strong Women” Exercise Class

A Reception was held for Richard and Sue Ashe on March 19th.

Richard and Sue are moving to Redding to be closer to family.
They will be sorely missed!

We served a cake
that was delicious!

Tailgater Shout-out to Terry Nichols

Terry Nichols is a member of Yreka United Methodist Church and one of our newest Tailgater volunteers. Terry was involved in the ministry even before joining us on the street. She began by purchasing extra food and goodies that she thought our guests could use and would enjoy. Each month we would find one or two brown grocery bags on our table in the Ed Building loaded with an assortment of treats from popcorn to Vienna sausages, all of which would go out on the street the next Sunday to the delight of our guests. Slowly Terry began to join us on the street helping wherever she could. Recently she took over the front table, serving guests their lunches and providing the kids with juice boxes and special treats. Terry also helps us Saturday mornings making sandwiches. This is a special time of fellowship and fun, and she is a welcome addition.

Thank you Terry for all the time and love you give to our community.

It makes a difference!
