

Red, White & Blue Celebration

Join in the celebration of Flag Day at our June luncheon. Show your patriotism by wearing your favorite red, white and blue apparel, and display your American flag-themed jewelry and accessories too. Attendees will vote for the member with the most patriotic outfit, who will then receive special recognition and a prize. There will not be a formal program this month, so come and enjoy spending time with your Newcomers club friends.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Hello Ladies,

The May luncheon provided a great occasion to thank our outgoing officers for all their hard work and dedication. Betty Little and Dru Juhl showed their creativity as they presented a sunshine-themed installation for our new executive board officers. I look forward to seeing how the sun will shine brightly on Newcomers in the upcoming year with its many opportunities to connect, learn and build new friendships.

With summer right around the corner, many of us will be taking vacations. So we will take this time to have casual lunches with themes but no specific programs in June and July. Since Flag Day is June 14, let's celebrate Flag Day and Independence Day at the June luncheon by wearing our red, white and blue.

I hope to see you all at our luncheon on June 15 at the UCF DoubleTree.

HOOKED ON BOOKS

Carol Smith 407-618-3478

Did you know that when the Oxford English Dictionary (OED) debuted in 1928 there was a forgotten word? The slip of paper with the quotation for the word bondmaid went missing. This is one of the true events that our May book, Dictionary of Lost Words by Pip Williams, used to build its story. The writing of the dictionary was primarily a male endeavor and therefore was biased in favor of the sensibilities of men. Our discussion focused on the character Esme and how she formed her own collection of words relating to women, even including the unsavory ones. Bondmaid was the first word she found. By the way, it was finally added to the OED in 1933.

Hooked on Books is a delightful place to make friends and have intriguing discussions over a cup of coffee and a donut. Join us in June when we will be discussing Tomorrow, and Tomorrow, and Tomorrow: A novel by Gabrielle Zevin. For more details, please see page 4.

COOKING CLUB

Vicki Nidzgorski 813-395-3611

Cooking Club gathered at Brenda's in May to taste test our flower/flour recipes. Recipes varied from flowers in salads to focaccia bread decorated with vegetables to look like flowers.

We enjoyed welcoming Debbie Browning and Jean Wilson to our group! On June 8, we will meet at Michele Marino's to taste test recipes from our theme: Sheet Pan Recipes. Sheet pan recipes have become very popular in the last few years for making roasted vegetables and whole dinners. They are not just for cookies anymore! It's time to explore what our ladies can put together on a sheet pan. Carol found a great site if you need ideas. You can find it at:

<https://www.foodnetwork.com/recipes/photos/sheet-pan-recipes>.

To participate in June, please submit two recipes that you have not prepared before, to Vicki by email or text. Vicki will let you know which recipe has been chosen for you to prepare for our theme. Ensure your participation by emailing or texting the recipe to Vicki by June 1. Come to Cooking Club on June 8 with your prepared dish, a serving utensil if needed and your printed recipe PDF that will be emailed to you. If you enjoy taste testing, laughter and fun, please consider joining us! Participation is limited to 12 this month.
