

GI- Early Africa

- Louis and Mary Leakey discovered the first human remains in the Great Rift Valley in Africa

Sample Questions

1. Where does the archaeological evidence gathered by Louis and Mary Leakey suggest the earliest humans developed?

- (1) Great Rift Valley
- (2) Amazon rain forest
- (3) Himalaya Mountains
- (4) Philippine archipelago

“I am lucky enough to have been involved for half a century with work, mostly in East Africa, that very much belongs to everyone, since it concerns the human origins that are common to the whole human race.”— Mary Leakey, Autobiography

2. In this quotation, the author is implying that early humans

- (1) migrated from Africa to Eurasia
- (2) first appeared in Africa
- (3) invented tools and mastered the use of fire
- (4) appeared shortly after the Neolithic Age