

VIRGIL HISTORY PROJECT

Can you help?

The Virgil Historical Society is gathering stories of growing up in and living in Virgil, New York. The collection will be published in 2019. We are seeking stories written by past and current Virgil residents. Writers of all ages are welcome. There is also the option of being interviewed by a volunteer.

Some themes of interest:

childhood memories

farm life and family life

school days

mills, stores and roads

churches and civic groups

the beauty of the land

coming home
