CCC information will be going in to the Advertiser, Pine County Currier, Hinckley News, Pathfinder Weekender and Evergreen. Buttons are available for sale and will be out to Thrifty Troll, Farmers, Northview and Town and Country later today. Also, Tee Dealers has donated all proceeds for the first 100 CCC t-shirts ordered.

MCCU will be hosting their Grand Opening next week in Sandstone, at the new location. They will have prize give away all week as well as a lunch on Friday.

Sweet Summer Sounds has kicked off. There are shows held on Thursday nights from 6:30-8pm, rain or shine.

Softball Tournament planning is underway and going very well. Last year we had 9 teams and so far, we are at 11.

Grand Grill has permanently closed as of this past Sunday.

Farmers gives away $2500 per quarter for Thank A Million Teachers. This quarter we have two Hinckley teachers, Amy Grice and Brett Bartkey. Please go on daily and vote to support our local teachers.

Meeting adjourned at 12:53pm
