Setting: The wealthy owner of a 20,000 acre Texas ranch has died. His butler, Jarvis, an alluring maid, the rancher's niece - his only living relative, and her husband, are gathered for the reading of the will. Oddly, Miss Tammy Jo Harper, a neighbor, has also been invited. As expected, the niece inherits everything. Jarvis then produces from the safe a reputed love potion. Does it work? Before long, everyone is sipping the sample with hilarious results.

Act 1

Present day. Living room and study of the Texas ranch home of the late Edward Stancliffe.

Intermission

Special Thanks

Special thanks to Don Kaspar for loaning us several pieces of decor and furniture for the set from the Peach Tree Emporium, including the famous drinks table, and to Red Vault Bistro & Gallery. Thank you to Hairgrove Saddlery & Gifts, Hearty Gourmet and Gonzales Building Center for donations to the set, props and decorations. Thank you to Michael Parker, The Lone Star Love Potion's author, for sharing his artwork and the special secrets to his play. We would also like to express our sincere gratitude to our cast and crew. Each member has helped decorate the stage, worked diligently preparing their roles, and volunteered their time to create an outstanding production. Lastly, thank you to our families for offering their support and their love, unconditionally.
