

Weidman, Marjorie M.

Marjorie M. Weidman, 87, of Caro, passed away peacefully Tuesday, September 13, 2005, at Northwood Meadows in Cass City, following a lingering illness. She was born May 31, 1918, the daughter of the late Elmer and Luella (Faist) Bueschlen in the family farmhouse in Winsor Township. She was married to Orville E. Weidman on March 20, 1948 at the Kilmanagh United Methodist Church. The couple moved to Caro from Pigeon in 1977. Marge was employed as a bookkeeper for about 13 years at the Michigan Sugar Company, and later as a secretary for the Pigeon Co-Op Elevator for about 10 years, retiring in 1984. Marge always loved going to church and was an active member of the Colwood United Brethren Church. Marge cherished life, her husband, family and friends, playing the piano, listening to music and attending Bay Shore Camp. She was always able to keep her smile, even through her final days. Surviving are her husband of more than 57 years, Orville E. Weidman, of Caro; four children, Carol and her husband, Jack, Green, of Eaton Rapids, Neil and his wife, Gayle, Weidman, of Midland, Dale and his wife, Maryke, Weidman, of Cass City, and Denise Weidman, of Saginaw; five grandsons, Jason, Chad, Derek, Kyle and Jared; two step-grandsons, Jack and Bob Green; one sister, Wava Bueschlen, of Ft. Wayne, Indiana; and several nieces, nephews and great-nieces and -nephews. Besides her parents, Marge was preceded in death by her brother, Robert E. Bueschlen. Funeral services took place at 11 a.m. on Friday, September 16, 2005, at the Colwood United Brethren Church in Caro, with the Rev. Rocky Spear and the Rev. Phil Whipple officiating. Burial followed in Almer Township Cemetery, Caro. Memorials can be made to the Colwood United Brethren Church, the Bay Shore Camp or Youth For Christ. The family was assisted with arrangements by the Ransford Funeral Home of Caro.
