

FRANCIS CHARLES McGEE

1919 - 1992

Frank McGee, 73 of Elkton, died Friday, Nov. 13 at Huron Memorial Hospital, Bad Axe, following an acute heart attack.

He was born May 19, 1919 in Meade Township at the home of his parents, the late Daniel and Elizabeth (McCormick) McGee. He lived and farmed in Huron County most of his life. He was also a mechanic for a number of years at McGee and Walsh Garage in Chandler Township.

On Aug. 16, 1986, he was united in marriage to Lena Divo Young in Elkton. He was a member of St. Francis Borgia Catholic Church in Pigeon, past member of the Tip of the Thumb VFW Post in Pigeon and was a World War II U.S. Army veteran, having served in Europe.

Mr. McGee is survived by his wife, Lena; his stepson, Jerry (Dorothy) Young of Pigeon; his stepdaughter, Connie (Claire) June of North Branch; eight grandchildren, Dana, Bryan, Carey, Curt, Creg, Cheri, Casey and Calyssa; two sisters, Loretta McLellan of Bad Axe and Madalyn Krohn of Elkton.

Three brothers, Martin, James and Vincent, and three sisters, Margaret Light, Winnifred Dowde and Annabel Louks, preceded him in death.

A funeral mass was conducted at 10 a.m. Monday, Nov. 16 at St. Francis Catholic Church. Rev. Fr. Barney Janowicz, pastor, officiated, with burial in Sacred Heart Cemetery, Bad Axe. Funeral arrangements were handled by Champagne Funeral Chapel, Elkton.

Memorials may be made to the donor's choice.