

Death Comes To Early Pioneer Of This Area

1748

Frederick E. Clunis, 70, passed away at his home at Elkton Tuesday, July 20th after an illness of 16 months.

Funeral services will be held Friday, July 23, at 2:30 in St. Paul's Evangelical United Brethren church with burial in Colfax cemetery. Rev. Burgess will officiate.

Mr. Clunis was born March 29th, 1870, in Aylmer, Ontario. In 1890 he moved with his parents to the vicinity of Elkton where he lived until his death. When he began clearing his farm it was all woods and not even surveyed.

In 1897 Mr. Clunis was united in marriage with Lavina M. Wager of Soule who survives him. Beside his widow, Mr. Clunis leaves a daughter, Mrs. Floyd Carr of Bad Axe, a son Wager F. Clunis of Elkton, four grandsons and one great grandson, a sister, Mrs. Leita Rutherford, Highland Park, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Mr. Clunis was a member of St. Paul's Evangelical United Brethren church at Elkton and will be remembered for his great interest in Christian activities.
