Broomfield Council on the Arts & Humanities Mission Statement

"Broomfield Council on the Arts & Humanities is a nonprofit, membership-based organization, dedicated to the advancement of the arts and humanities. We strive for quality programs by nurturing creative ideas, fostering community participation, facilitating professional excellence in member offerings, and ensuring inclusive access for residents of Broomfield and surrounding communities."

Artist Behind the Cover: Judy Shelley

Biography: Judy Shelley

Judy and her family moved to Broomfield in 1975. She has long held an interest in art, especially the intricacies of Modern and Abstract Art, but never had time to pursue it, with raising two kids and working full time

She and her husband, Dave, a watercolor artist, joined the Broomfield Art Guild several years ago where she has made new friends and been exposed to a number of methods of visual art. Gale Simonson introduced her to Acrylic Pouring earlier this year and she was hooked!

Since starting her pursuit of Pouring as an art form, she has been immersed in studying and learning as much as she can about this complex and intriguing form of expression. The painting on the cover is one of those "happy accidents" which keeps many artists at their easels or in their studios; the "Accidental Bird" formed of its own accord as the painting developed. Judy is currently serving as Co-Vice President of the Broomfield Art Guild.

Process of Pouring

Acrylic Pouring, also known as Fluid Art, is a simple seeming but very complex and compelling art form. The complexity comes from the need to follow a number of exacting steps from: envisioning a design, knowing the properties of the paint to be used, what additives can be used to affect those properties, how colors will blend and flow, what techniques to use, and how to manipulate the paint on the canvas. All of these steps take a considerable amount of time to figure out and execute. Finally, the artist must take into account the fact that the paint is likely to do what it wants

BCAH is thankful for our donors, funders & sponsors!

Becoming an annual tradition, the Broomfield Community Players (BCP) announces its 2023 performance dates of Charles Dickens holiday classic. BCP brings Dickens' classic holiday tale to life with this heart-warming story about the misery Ebenezer Scrooge discovering the true meaning of Christmas.

A Christmas Carol recounts the story of Ebenezer Scrooge, an elderly miser who is visited by the ghost of his former business partner, Jacob Marley, and the spirits of Christmas Past, Present and Yet to Come. After their visits, Scrooge is transformed and begins to live a life of kindness, generosity and compassion, embodying the spirit of Christmas.

Broomfield's Improv Group: Broomshticks

On Saturday, October 21st, the Broomshticks swept the stage at the annual Refuge Comedy Night, a fundraiser to support our unhoused neighbors in need.

The "Shticks" shared short-form improv games and made sure to include plenty of audience participation. The fundraiser also featured lots of local talent and the headliner, comic Michele Borsith. ## Youth Advisory Board Starts Art Supply Drive

BCAH's Youth Advisory Board (BCAH-YAB) has five civic-minded and creative students from various Broomfield schools who are already getting started with making a difference in their community with their art drive. The supplies they collect will be delivered to local schools that do not have substantial budgets for art supplies. If you would like to donate any type of new or used art supplies, please drop off your donation to the Brunner Farmhouse between 3-5 p.m. on December 8. If you would prefer to donate directly to this youth board program, visit ArtsinBroomfield.org, click the Donate button, and indicate to which program you are donating

Working alongside BCAH's Board President, Kathy Klatt, and BCAH's Executive Director, Keri Dillingham, these students are also considering investing time in other projects, such as Creative Broomfield's Broomfield Out Loud project. As part of the project, they will participate in a creative writing exercise which helps them to find their unique story and discover common story themes within the group. In 2024, they may engage in creating a production based on their work in this innovative project that digs deep into the oral stories of our community.

If you know of a teen in 8-12th grades who would like to join the BCAH-YAB, please send an email to BCAH@ArtsinBroomfield.org.

Brunner Farmhouse and Gardens News

The Brunner Farmhouse and Gardens is wrapping up a very successful year of gardening. Our gardens offer a place to relax, have a picnic, hear a concert, or walk in Open Space. The colorful perennial gardens are managed by xx community volunteers with the assistance of the Broomfield Master Gardeners.

One of our 15 gardens is our Teaching Garden which was donated by Olson Outdoors. This new vegetable garden was very productive this year. Master Gardeners began teaching classes for both Garden Basics and Family Learn and Grow from April through September. These classes enabled young students and adults to explore growing their own food and to watch the garden grow through the season. Two of the six beds in the vegetable garden were dedicated to these programs. The other beds are currently used for pumpkins, strawberries, sensory and an experimental bed.

The pumpkins were donated to BCAH to be used in the 4th Annual Pumpkin Art Contest. Our International Experimental bed was used to test crops and varieties of cultural significance in other regions of the world and provide cross-cultural exposure. The Sensory and Herb bed includes edible flowers as well as herbs, and offers opportunities for touch, smell, colorful sight and occasionally taste (the latter under the supervision of an instructor). Certified horticultural therapists have taught special classes for local disability nonprofits. Since inception, over 800 people have participated in vegetable educational workshops at the Brunner Farmhouse and Gardens.

More Storytellers for Broomfield

Broomfield Spellbinders has added three new members to its team of talented tellers of tales. They now will share stories in elementary classrooms in Broomfield and neighboring communities. Pictured are graduates of the most recent class and the trainers.

The new storytellers met for four three-hour sessions at historic Brunner Farmhouse, where they learned the history of Spellbinders®, the history of storytelling, how and where to find age-appropriate stories, and how to find and practice their own storytelling style. Now, they are ready to share these stories with young students.

Teachers interested in having a storyteller in their classroom on a monthly basis should contact Julie Toepper by sending an email to Julie.toepper@gmail.com or Janis Lievens at janirocks@msn.com. Anyone interested in joining the next training class (in the Spring or next Summer) are invited to contact Wynn Montgomery by sending an email to wynnmill@comcast.net. Anyone who would like to learn more about Broomfield Spellbinders is also welcome to attend a monthly meeting from 1-3 p.m. every third Friday (except in December) at Brunner Farmhouse where you will meet nice people and hear some good stories.

Winter Reflections: A CRS Holiday Concert & More

The 2023-2024 season for Colorado Repertory Singers (CRS) is off to a great start! This year, we welcomed more than 20 new singers making this the largest choir in our history. The Denver Metro Area is rich with talented singers and artists. We are lucky to have so many join CRS!

CRS also introduced a new, smaller chamber choir made up of existing members. The CRS chamber ensemble is a smaller group that sings diverse repertoire that compliments the pieces sung by our larger group. You can hear both groups at all of our concerts this season!

We wrapped our October concert series with a program of songs chosen by our choir member, which we performed to a sold-out crowd in Lafayette and a full house in Boulder.

Winter Reflections: A CRS Holiday Concert

December 8 | 7:30pm

December 9 | 2:30 p.m. & 7:30 p.m.

Broomfield Auditorium: 3 Community Park Rd., 80020

Tickets: ColoradoRepertorySingers.org

For our holiday concert series in December, we will return to our homebase at the Broomfield Auditorium for two evening concerts and one matinee. Tickets on sale now!

For another chance to hear holiday melodies from CRS, our chamber choir will be ringing in the holiday season at the Broomfield Tree Lighting on December 1 which is held at 6 p.m. at the George DiCiero Building (1 DesCombes Dr., 80020).

Jubilate Deo: Educational Masterwork Collaboration

March 15 | 7:30 p.m.

Central Presbyterian Church: 1660 Sherman St., Denver, 80203

Tickets: ColoradoRepertorySingers.org

After the holidays, we will be hard at work on our annual Education Masterwork Collaboration. This is some of the most important work CRS undertakes, connecting with student musicians and supporting music educators. This season we are thrilled to bring to life Dan Forrest's Jubilate Deo. Jubilate Deo brings to life the global aspect of the traditional Psalm 100 text, "O be joyful in the Lord, all ye lands," by setting it in seven different languages and drawing from a wide spectrum of musical influences. Each movement combines some characteristics of its language-group's musical culture with the composer's own musical language. Movements include liturgical Latin, intertwined Hebrew and Arabic, Mandarin Chinese, Zulu, Spanish, Song of the Earth (untaxed), and a closing movement combining several of these languages with English. The result is a stunning global celebration of joy, as all the earth sings as one, "omnis terra, jubilate!"

Songs From the Stage & Screen

May 17 | 7:30 p.m.

May 18 | 7:30 p.m.

Broomfield Auditorium: 3 Community Park Rd., 80020

Our final concert of the season is a different form of celebration as we sing Songs From the Stage & Screen. We are excited to explore the music that has been weaving its way through the stories and shows we love to watch. This not only includes pop songs and Broadway tunes but also classical, jazz and folk music

As we look forward to the 2024-2025 season, Colorado Repertory Singers are planning a trip to South Africa where we will learn from and collaborate with South African choirs, be immersed in South African culture, wildlife, and landscapes.

We hope to see you out in the audience this season!
