

ANNA CRUSE

1917 - 1995

Anna M. Cruse, 78 of Casaville, passed away Tuesday, June 20 at St. Luke's Hospital, Saginaw, following a long illness.

She was born May 23, 1917 in Detroit, where she lived most of her life. She retired from Federal's Dept. Store in Detroit in 1982 after more than 30 years of employment, having been sales manager in the Clothing Department. She moved to Casaville last year for health reasons, to be near her son.

She was a member of St. Clemens Catholic Church, Casselton.

Surviving are her son, Roy (Gertrude) Czajkowski of Casaville; two granddaughters; four great-grandchildren and two brothers, Marion (Gretta) Kozlowski of Holiday, FL and Stanley Kozlowski of Dearborn Hgts.

She was preceded in death by a brother, Leonard Kozlowski and a sister, Helen Kania.

A Funeral Mass was conducted Saturday, June 24 at 11 a.m. at St. Roch Catholic Church, Casaville. Rev. Fr. Dennis Kucharczyk, pastor, officiated with burial in Mt. Olivet Cemetery, Detroit.

The Champagne Funeral Chapel, Casaville, handled funeral arrangements.
