

Be on the Look Out!

The Lord says, “Be on the Lookout!” This weekend will be one of Divine appointments. Divine appointments have everything to do with the attitude of your heart. Divine appointments are unexpected meetings with another person specifically and unmistakably ordered by God.

God is interested in your availability for Him and wants to use you where ever you are! You cannot open your schedule if you do not open your heart. He wants to use you to encourage others.

Scripture is full of Divine appointments. God is working out His purposes in the lives of those you encounter (Acts 17:26). As His child, you need to be sensitive, willing, and ready to share His love to others (Isaiah 6:8 Matthew. 28:18-20; Acts 1:8; 2 Corinthians 5:20).

Be on the Lookout! These appointments are being orchestrated by His hand even now as you read this. These Divine appointments are an opportunity for you God to display His love, mercy, kindness and grace to others. You have kingdom impact, whether you realize it or not.

There are so many people that are hurting and confused all around you. For some, the holiday season is a terrible time....They feel isolated, alone, rejected and abandoned. Be on the Lookout!!!! Speak Life to those around you. Speak Hope to those around you. Be sensitive to His direction as you share His Love with those around you. God is going to send unexpected people across your path.

They work in your grocery stores, gas stations, attend your church, they are in restaurants and banks. The possibilities of where they are and what He will do through you are endless! Be on the Lookout! Ask Him to direct your steps. Ask Him to guide your thoughts. Ask Him to speak through you.

These people you will encounter need a touch from the Lord and it's going to come from you. Speak out whatever He lays on your heart. However, you must be willing to be led by the Holy Spirit if you want to touch others.

Be ready for some amazingly arranged circumstances. These appointments will have more to do with your others than your schedule. As you head into your weekend ask God to take the blinders off. Don't be so focused on what has to get done that you miss your God assignments along the way.

“Dear Heavenly Father, open my eyes to see the people whom I pass who need a word from You. Lord I know some need encouragement, a word of acknowledgement, or a word of thanks. Help me to slow down enough to see the needs standing right in front of me. Thank You for giving Jesus as our example of how to care for a hurting world. God use me, open doors for Your Word to go forth. Help me to see the appointments You are arranging. Most importantly, I give you permission to interrupt my life so You can use me to share Your love with those around me”
