

TCCSTA Play Festival Business Meeting Minutes

March 5, 2004

Lamar University, Beaumont, Texas

President Freddy Mason thanked Adonia Placette of the Lamar University Theatre Department for hosting the festival.

Sheleigh Carmichael announced problems with scheduling.

The two new technical pre-preparation areas, lighting design and dramaturg, are working well.

Freddy Mason announced that schools attending the Phi Rho Pi National Speech Tournament would like to deposit $300 each to pay judges. Motion to accept, Liz Hedges; second, Shellie O'Neal; passed unanimously.

Kingwood College and Dom Bongiorno will host the fall business meeting in September 2004.

Weatherford College and Nancy McVean extend an invitation for play festival in 2005.

John Wright asked for suggestions for new member schools.

KC-ACTF invites our participation. A respondent can come to our show on our campus. The costs include a $200 entry fee and the respondent's expenses.

Congratulations to TVCC whose KC-ACTF show has been nominated for the regional festival.

Tal Lostracco suggested that more workshops be available to students during play festival.

The meeting was adjourned.

Respectfully Submitted,
Liz Hedges, Recording Secretary
