I would like to welcome all the ladies of our Masonic family from within Idaho, and outside of the state also, to the 154th Communication of the Grand Lodge AF&AM of Idaho.

The dates are Wednesday thru Friday 9/15 – 9/17/21 at the Best Western CDA Inn in Coeur d'Alene Idaho.

We will have an OPEN In-Person Grand Lodge with the theme: "Kissin Covid Goodbye". Steve and I are looking forward to a large turnout, so please mark your calendars and get your registrations in early.

On Thursday, the ladies will set sail on a cruise of Lake Coeur d'Alene. On Friday we will have our special luncheon to pass the First Ladies' pin, and then enjoy our craft party where we will make wooden signs with inspirational sayings.

A new fun event has been added this year. Please join us Thursday night at our new FREE Bunko night. We will have finger-foods and soft drinks while we have fun and get to know each other. If you have not played Bunko before, no worries. It is easy and we will teach you. Did I mention it is FREE? I am sure you want bragging rights as one of the first Idaho Grand Lodge Bunko Night Winners. You might even win one of the trophies. Please plan to join us, for without you the evening will not be as enjoyable!

Steve and I borrowed a fun idea from our good friends in Wyoming. The dress code for the Friday banquet is "Black Tie Somewhere". The banquet dress code for guys and gals is dressy casual, but everyone is required to wear a black tie of some sort. It must be worn somewhere on your person and you must show it if asked or face a fine! The tie can be any style of black tie, and it can be worn around your head, your arm, your leg. Let your imagination wander! Just be ready to show it and have fun!

Make plans now to come and join Steve and I at Idaho's Grand Lodge as we celebrate "Kissin' Covid Goodbye!"

See you in September,

With warm regards,

Kathie Zimmerman
