

Town of Stratton

Town Clerk
9 West Jamaica Rd.
Stratton, VT 05360

To: Members of the Board of Civil Authority (BCA)

Re: The 2019 Purge of the Voter Checklist

September 5, 2019

Dear BCA Members,

The results of the purge process of the 2019 Voter Checklist, required by statute, are as follows:

- 1) Mason Avera: He has not responded to either of the two challenge letters sent from this office to his last known address. He will continue to be considered a “challenged voter” and may be removed after the 2022 General Election, unless a response is received.
- 2) Terry Beyer: In reply to the challenge letter, he responded that he is no longer a resident. He was removed from the voter checklist.
- 3) Todd Beyer: In reply to the challenge letter, he responded that he is a resident. He was restored as active to the voter checklist.
- 4) Trace Beyer: In reply to the challenge letter, he responded that he is a resident. He was restored as active to the voter checklist.
- 5) Peter Christy: In reply to the challenge letter, he responded that he is a resident. He was restored as active to the voter checklist.
- 6) Craig Collins: A change of address was returned to a Bondville PO Box and a second challenge letter was sent, but no response has been received. He will continue to be considered a “challenged voter” and may be removed after the 2022 General Election unless a response is received.
- 7) Joseph Conti: In reply to the challenge letter, he responded that he is a resident. He was restored as active to the voter checklist.
- 8) Michael Conti: He has not responded to either of the two challenge letters sent from this office to his last known address. He will continue to be considered a “challenged voter” and may be removed after the 2022 General Election, unless a response is received.
- 9) Sophie Cyker: She has not responded to either of the two challenge letters sent from this office to her last known address. She will continue to be considered a “challenged voter” and may be removed after the 2022 General Election, unless a response is received.
- 10) Christian Herzog: He has not responded to either of the two challenge letters sent from this office to his last known address. He will continue to be considered a “challenged voter” and may be removed after the 2022 General Election, unless a response is received.
- 11) Morgan Klein: She has not responded to either of the two challenge letters sent from this office to her last known address. She will continue to be considered a

- “challenged voter” and may be removed after the 2022 General Election, unless a response is received.
- 12) Gary Miller: In reply to the challenge letter, he responded that he is a resident. He was restored as active to the voter checklist.
 - 13) Marcus Muncill: In reply to the challenge letter, he responded that he is a resident. He was restored as active to the voter checklist.
 - 14) Andrew Nault: In reply to the challenge letter, he responded that he is no longer a resident. He was removed from the voter checklist.
 - 15) Matthew Nault: In reply to the challenge letter, he responded that he is no longer a resident. He was removed from the voter checklist.
 - 16) Matthew Nowicki: He has not responded to either of the two challenge letters sent from this office to his last known address. He will continue to be considered a “challenged voter” and may be removed after the 2022 General Election, unless a response is received.
 - 17) Taylor Nowicki: He has not responded to either of the two challenge letters sent from this office to his last known address. He will continue to be considered a “challenged voter” and may be removed after the 2022 General Election, unless a response is received.
 - 18) Jay Ogle: He has not responded to either of the two challenge letters sent from this office to his last known address. He will continue to be considered a “challenged voter” and may be removed after the 2022 General Election, unless a response is received.
 - 19) Spencer Serels: He has not responded to either of the two challenge letters sent from this office to his last known address. He will continue to be considered a “challenged voter” and may be removed after the 2022 General Election, unless a response is received.
 - 20) Lauren Schott: In reply to the challenge letter, she responded that she is a resident. She was restored as active to the voter checklist.
 - 21) Maretta Rose Sonn: The first Challenge letter was returned with no forwarding address. She will continue to be considered a “challenged voter” and may be removed after the 2022 General Election.
 - 22) Preston Stachelek: In reply to the challenge letter, she responded that she is a resident. She was restored as active to the voter checklist.
 - 23) Barry Tyler: In reply to the challenge letter, he responded that he is a resident. He was restored as active to the voter checklist.
 - 24) Joseph Wirmusky: He has not responded to either of the two challenge letters sent from this office to his last known address. He will continue to be considered a “challenged voter” and may be removed after the 2022 General Election, unless a response is received.

Additional Challenges since July 17, 2019 were:

- 1) R. Shane Boatright: In reply to the challenge letter, he responded that he is no longer a resident. He was removed from the voter checklist.
- 2) Alexa Boatright: In reply to the challenge letter, she responded that she is no longer a resident. She was removed from the voter checklist.

Voter Checklist Status:

Five voters remain as “Challenged” as a result of previous actions to this year’s Purge process, four of whom may be removed following the 2020 General Election, unless they respond accordingly. At this time, Stratton has 189 registered voters, eighteen (18) of whom are challenged.

David Kent Young

David Kent Young
Stratton Town Clerk