

KELSEY KLEINMAN

Instructor • Company Co-Director
Company Choreographer & Coach

Kelsey has been dancing for over 25 years and has trained in a wide variety of styles including contemporary, ballet, modern, jazz, tap, and hip hop. She has a Bachelor's Degree in dance from UCLA where she studied under world-renowned choreographers and dance pioneers.

Kelsey has danced alongside artists such as Kool & The Gang, Che'nelle, and KC and the Sunshine Band; has performed for TV, including the 2019 Rose Parade; and has been in numerous musicals and stage works. Kelsey has taught and choreographed for many schools, studios, and performing arts programs throughout Southern California. She is also on staff with the United Spirit Association and is certified in PBT (Progressing Ballet Technique). She has been with Aspire Dance Studio since its opening in 2013 and in addition to teaching classes, she co-directs and choreographs for their competition team. Her dances have won numerous regional/national titles, choreography awards, and Industry Dance Award nominations.

Kelsey holds Aspire Dance Studio near and dear to her heart. She loves sharing her passion for dance and hopes to cultivate creativity and conscientiousness in each of her students so that they are successful in all of their endeavors!
