

Peter Mahmood Bio

Peter Mahmood is a Major (Retired) United States Army with 24 years Active Duty & 6 Years in Education as a Senior Army Instructor for JROTC programs.

Peter is currently the Lead Recruiter for Military Programs for Caliber Collision. He screens and selects Active Duty Servicemembers and Veterans for positions in the Auto Collision Repair Industry. Peter is also the Owner of TAE Recruiting, a Recruiting Consulting firm for Veterans & Spouses based in Colorado Springs.

TAE Recruiting's mission, and Peter's mission, is to connect Veterans & Military Spouses with top employers. He has a "one on one" approach with Job Seekers. Peter will spend the time and resources on his candidates. He can always be trusted to deliver, and he will always find the right candidate for your company.

Peter is the former Commander of Colorado Springs US Army Recruiting. In that role, Peter was responsible for 45,000 Square Miles of Territory from Denver to the New Mexico Border with Colorado. Peter supervised 50 Army Recruiters, and his Army company was top in the area with over 110% mission accomplishment.

Peter resides in Colorado Springs with his wife Cecilia, and his daughters, Ysolina & Samantha. Pete's Motto is: "We always serve our Veterans & Military Spouses".
