

El Santuario de los Pobladores
Dedicated to the Mysteries of the Rosary

Our promise and dedication towards completing the Santuario in honor of Our Lady of Guadalupe and Mysteries of the Rosary perseveres and each day brings us closer to its completion. Gravel has been spread in front and around the east and west sides of the labyrinth. Trees (6) have been planted. As donations are received, more trees will be placed. We have also planted shrubs and flower bushes and surrounded the area with gravel. Adobe dedication plaques are now in place in the labyrinth courtyard and placement of plaques continue. Once all these are in place, merchants who have supported our project, will also be acknowledged. Each outlying mission will have its own mission statue displayed when funds are available. Please support the volunteers seeking contributions from your placita. Your continued patience & cooperation is greatly appreciated as we work with volunteers in this phase of our project. St. Augustine & Holy Family statues are now in place at the Santuario. In addition, statues of Our Lady Of Guadalupe and St. Juan Diego will be placed at the entrance and donations are being accepted to begin this phase. Placement of new trees will also be available to contributors interested in dedicating a tree in memory of a family member similar to what now exists on Veterans Boulevard entering the Village of Conejos. We want to acknowledge the generous contributions we have received to keep the project moving along-monetary contributions & volunteer time. Thank you!

Theme: Jesus' Royal Messiahship of Both Jews and Gentiles.

Often people travel and pay a great deal of money per plate to attend a dinner party where a famous politician makes an appearance. Today we celebrate the appearance of the Lord Jesus on the human scene. For the Greeks, the word "Epiphany" was used to describe the appearance or manifestation of a god among human beings. The Greek Fathers used it for the Incarnation of the Son of God. As the feast is celebrated now in the Western Church, it brings out a prominent aspect of the Christmas Mystery, namely, the manifestation (epiphany) of the universal dominion of the newborn King, as dramatized in the Lord Jesus' manifestation to the Magi (wise men from the East). Again the symbolism of light is lavishly used. This day Christ "appeared in the world as a light shining in darkness, [so] may God make you, too, a light for your brothers and sisters" (Solemn Blessing).

FIRST READING Is 60:1-6 [Glory of God's Church]

Returning from exile in Babylon, the Jews make a pilgrimage to Jerusalem. The poet envisages all nations joining this pilgrimage to the light. God manifesting himself in Jesus Christ is a light shining in the darkness of the human condition. The Gentiles (non-Jews) responding to this revelation of God in Christ are symbolized by the Magi. The Responsorial Psalm describes the bliss of God's reign, if fully accepted. Pray that all may see the light!

SECOND READING Eph 3:2-3a, 5-6 [Good News for All]

Paul stresses that God manifested himself in the Lord Jesus not only to the Jews but to all nations. The Gentiles (non-Jews) are now coheirs with the Jews, members of Christ's body and sharers of the divine promise. "May God, who has called you out of darkness into his wonderful light, ... make your hearts firm in faith, hope and charity" (Solemn Blessing).

Question of the Week:

What will I do this week to manifest the presence of Christ in me to others?

“On the 12th day of Christmas my true love gave to me... the feast of Epiphany!”

Epiphany is known in Latin America as “Día de los Reyes”—Kings Day, the day the Magi, or “kings,” came to visit Jesus. And the word Epiphany comes from Greek, meaning “to reveal” or “to shine forth.” When Jesus is revealed to the wisdom teachers of foreign powers, God switches on the light—the light of illuminated knowledge, and the light of sheer joy.

Looking at our texts, Matthew’s gospel is the only one that mentions the Magi, because Matthew’s gospel was composed to highlight Jesus as the fulfillment of the Hebrew scriptures. It’s likely that Matthew wrote about the visit of the Magi thinking about today’s Old Testament text from Isaiah. Isaiah prophesied: “Nations shall walk by your light, and kings by your shining radiance.” It also says they shall come “bearing gold and frankincense and proclaiming the praises of the Lord.”

The light in Isaiah’s prophecy may also be the star that draws the Magi in Matthew’s account. “Light” in these passages may have two senses. One meaning is light as spiritual illumination, as the Magi represent the wisdom of the ancient East, which finds its fulfillment in Christ. And light also has the sense of “lightening” one’s face—or “lightening” one’s mood—as the Magi in Matthew’s nativity are filled with great joy when the star delivers them to the holy family.

What do these texts tell us on Epiphany in 2026?

First, they invite us to be open to wisdom from unexpected places. In the first century, the Magi were people whom most Jews would regard as hostile. They were pagan sorcerers, yet in Matthew’s story they understood the signs and sought after Jesus. As an aging hippy, I’m reminded of an old Grateful Dead lyric: “Sometimes you find you get shown the light in the strangest of places if you look at it right.”

These texts also remind us that the gift of God’s child is for everyone. Christ is not limited to any one culture, ethnicity, skin color, gender, or hemisphere. As John says in his gospel, Christ is God’s way of showing love to the world. And the Greek word in John 3:16 suggests an even greater scope: “God so loved the cosmos that God gave his child.” Christ is God’s gift for all of creation.

Finally, our Epiphany texts remind us that Christ can be our source of joy. Even when happiness eludes us, when circumstances are grim, when the world turns its back on justice, there can still be joy—the abiding sense that all is well in a world that God loves despite its disappointments.

To quote 16th century doctor of the church St. Teresa of Ávila:

Let nothing disturb you, let nothing frighten you,
all things are passing away: God never changes.
Patience obtains all things.
Whoever has God lacks nothing;
God alone suffices.
