

The Unwanted Present

James 1:17 "Every good and perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father of Heavenly Lights, who does not change like shifting shadows."

I love hosting holiday parties and making up games to play. This season I had an idea! What about an after Christmas party where we all bring the gifts we don't want or need and exchange them. We could call it a Post- Christmas Regifting Party!! (Admit it moms we all have done some "re-gifting")

The scripture says every good gift and perfect gift comes down from heaven from the Father of Lights. The unchanging Father gives us not just good but perfect gifts.

The loss of our beloved child does not seem good let alone perfect. I'd gladly re-gift it as quickly as I could! Personally, I don't feel it came from Him but did pass through Him in the heavenly places as it did for Job.

Yet, one has to open a present to receive it's contents.

Maybe this Christmas you're staring at your unwanted present under the tree and thinking that's so big and ugly, I don't need this or want it, in fact it's not just a "white elephant " it's a big, black, rabid elephant!

But what if?, just what if? you open that present and it's His Presence and what if? just what if? the tree it's under is The Cross?
