

DANIEL'S SEVENTY WEEKS PROPHECY - Daniel 9:24-27 KJV

- 24^Q Seventy weeks are determined upon thy people and upon thy holy city, to finish the transgression, and to make an end of sins, and to make reconciliation for iniquity, and to bring in everlasting righteousness, and to seal up the vision and prophecy, and to anoint the most Holy.
- 25^Q Know therefore and understand, that from the going forth of the commandment to restore and to build Jerusalem unto the Messiah the Prince shall be seven weeks, and threescore (sixty) and two weeks: the street shall be built again, and the wall, even in troublous times.
- 26^Q And after threescore and two weeks shall Messiah be cut off, but not for himself: and the people of the prince that shall come shall destroy the city and the sanctuary; and the end thereof shall be with a flood, and unto the end of the war desolations are determined.
- 27^Q And he shall confirm the covenant with many for one week: and in the midst of the week he shall cause the sacrifice and the oblation to cease, and for the overspreading of abominations he shall make it desolate, even until the consummation, and that determined shall be poured upon the desolate

Year	457 BC	408 BC	27 AD	31 AD	34 AD	70 AD
Event	Artaxerxes issued decree to rebuild temple & establish law	Street and wall in Jerusalem were built in troubled times	Jesus Christ's ministry began at His baptism by John the Baptist	Jesus Christ confirmed the covenant to the Jews and after 3 1/2 years was crucified on Passover for our sins. On Pentacost the disciples received power of the Holy Spirit and The Church of God began its ministry to the Jews.	After the Apostles confirmed the covenant to the Jews for 3 1/2 more years with God's Holy Spirit in them, Stephen was stoned, severe persecution of the Church in Jerusalem began and the Gospel went to the Gentiles after Paul's conversion.	The end of the 70-weeks prophecy of probation for the Jews to repent and turn back to God came in 34 AD when the non-believing and non-repentant Jews rejected Jesus and defied God by killing Stephen and severely persecuting all Christians. They soon fell into abominations from moral decay, depravity and iniquity causing the inevitable results of the destruction of Jerusalem and the temple and their global dispersion by God using the Roman army for their destruction until 70 AD when the full results of God's desolation determined for them was consummated.
