Biography

Clarence "Chief" Seltz of Otisville, age 80, passed away on July 12, 2023. Clarence Seltz was born in Sherman Township, Michigan on December 9, 1942. His parents were Arnold and Alma (Geiger) Seltz. On April 23, 1966, he married Jenny Pluciennik in Parisville, Michigan. Clarence was a proud member of Local 324 Operating Engineers for 60 years. Years after his retirement in 2002, he pursued his passion for farming and took over the family farm located in Ruth, Michigan. In addition to his professional pursuits, Clarence was known for his inventive and innovative nature. He was skilled in fabrication and had a talent for creating new things. Clarence was also a devoted father to his daughters, and he cherished the title of being a "girl dad." He held a deep love for his children, family, and friends, always willing to go the extra mile to support and care for them.
