Help Lawrence County mark its 200th

Lawrence County celebrates its bicentennial year in 2018.

The bicentennial's mission is to honor Lawrence County's 200-year history, but do so in a modern way that engages citizens and leaves a lasting legacy for future generations.

The bicentennial focuses on four pillars: Youth and Education; Community Involvement; Historic Celebration; and Nature Preservation.

For information about the Bicentennial, visit the Lawrence County Bicentennial Facebook page at www.facebook.com/lawrencecountybicentennial.

Fostering fledgling businesses

In support of the City of Bedford's focus on "building a better Bedford," StoneGate Arts & Education Center is making offices available for business people interested in launching new small business enterprises and non-profit organizations in the Lawrence County area.

Currently, these incubator spaces are available free of charge. Ideally, as the businesses begin to flourish, rental costs will adjust on a sliding scale until the individual enterprises are solvent enough to strike out on their own.

Interested business owners must provide a business plan, offer an estimation of how long the business will remain at StoneGate Center, convey the specific accommodations they will require, provide proof of general business liability insurance, and be willing to discuss costs related to phone, internet and electrical usage.

For information, call Gene McCracken or Susan Hayes @ (812) 279-8126 or email gene@stonegateeducation.com or susan@stonegateeducation.com.
