

OOH – PICK ME!

Rachael Martin 4.21.2015

I've been listening to Misty Edwards, she has been singing about the great love of God. It seems like love has been an on-going theme – God is love. I went to a meeting Sunday evening and the Lord gave me a vision. He showed me torrential rains over Israel and I saw the rain drops almost as if it was slow motion so that I could see each one that was coming down was water that would burst as it hit the ground. Then as I looked closer the Lord said they are turning from raindrops to “love drops” because He has heard the prayers of the faithful intercessors crying out for Him to show Himself to His people. He said that the prayers that we have been praying for the Jewish nation to know Jesus Christ as their Savior and King were going to be answered in a mighty way because there has been a deep show of love from the gentiles who have been grafted in and it will not go unnoticed – love reaps love and the Jews are seeing more love from the Christians in this day and time than ever before!

Praise God – I'm so excited!! “Love drops” wow.. God's Love Poured Out – the blood of Jesus Christ at Calvary has paved yet another way and the souls of many – God's chosen people are about to have a heart to heart with Jesus Christ – the Son of the Living God! It's a great time to be in Israel – I know many who are there now. However, how can we be affective where we are here in our little ole house in the States? It's because of our prayers don't you see!? We need to keep doing what we are doing – INTERCEEDING and hearing from the Lord and being obedient is moving the heart of Almighty God!

To be like Jesus is to pray His heart, to know His ways, to WANT to hear from Him because your day, your life depends on it, to love Him is to keep His commandments. To love Him is to say “Pick Me Lord” – it's a choice.

1 John 2.6 – He who says he abides in Him ought himself also to walk just as He walked.

If you are experiencing change right now, don't worry – just continue to be obedient. I'm personally struggling through some changes in different arenas and I'm clueless at how it all is supposed to work out – but God!

Remembering to trust in the Lord and not what I see. Proverbs 3:5-6 tells us to not lean on our own understanding. Faith is a requirement. Say that out loud.

FAITH IS A REQUIREMENT.

So I'm talking to myself too – now stop looking back or fretting about what you can't do or don't know. I know a lot of you are prayer warriors – so put on the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness and pray – with all praying and supplication in the spirit – because why? Our minds don't know how we ought to pray – but our spirit speaks to HOLY SPIRIT – and says things that we can't even begin to understand – and He gets the job done – everytime.

Ok – Pick me! – I'm gonna pray this one out Lord – I'm going to walk this out in faith – I'm going to trust You – I'm going to stop thinking I'm not good enough, I'm going to knock on that door until they answer, I will shut down the schemes of the enemy because greater is He Who is in me – I'm going to step out and make a move knowing You have me Lord – I'm going to proclaim victory when I don't see it – I'm going to speak to these dry bones and speak healing when I'm not feeling it – I'm going to declare a RIGHTEOUS outcome when man doesn't say anything righteous at all – I'm going to decree salvation and blessing over my family even when you know what they did last night – it's time! Guess what – you said “oooh – Lord Pick me!” and the Lord said right back –

“I did... I created you and called you and I'm equipping you to be more than you see right now so stop looking at yourself and what you don't have and start looking around you and declaring what I have, to come to fruition in your life because I have all you need for today – I have your days numbered, I love you, I have assignments for you that you need to prepare for now so focus, stay sharp, stay ready, be about My business, gird up your loins and get your house in order – speak My words, and be My vessel, I'm a big God and I know who I've picked. – I've picked you.”
