Vol. 8 No. 4 ~ Winter 2023

A well-suited snow queen, My Elite Lady tests this season's first snowfall outside the Vintage Custom Model Equine Center in Wisconsin. She was created by future Breyer sculptor Kathleen Moody from a Breyer Classic Arab Mare in 1988, and was awarded as the Grand Prize in Moody's Remakers Review model horse show that year. Owned by Corky Visminas, this queen is throned in the VCMEC Museum!

A Word to the Fore: Reflections

Shannon Rodgers, and we'll bring you those results next issue. The overall aggregate results will follow in the issue after that, where the world's greatest vintage customs will be crowned!

In the meantime, enjoy the results of the series' fifth leg, judged by Sue Stahl--you'll find 'em starting on page 5 this issue. Thanks again, Sue!

Longtime hobbyist Andrea Lockhart of Australia, who judged the series' fourth leg in June, has written about it in the December 2023 issue (Vol. 30 No. 4, yowza!) of the Australasian International Model Horse Club newsletter--and we're mighty pleased and proud with what she had to say! Thanks so much, Andrea, we appreciate it!

Some more good news: The latest edition of Breyer's annual blockbuster "Just About Horses" includes a fine, photo-tastic article by Sarah Minkiewicz-Breunig on vintage customs. Check it out!

Also, didja know Betty Hook's online model horse showing club TOPSA (Totally Online Photo Show Association) has a Vintage

Custom division, for horses customized pre-1995? That halter division was new for 2023, and Betty is expanding its classlist for 2024! For info on TOPSA, visit www.facebook.com/topsamodelhorse/, or give Betty a write at eclipse@pa.net. Thanks again for adding the division, Betty--love it!

Well, gonna make the above photo of Wicked Speedia even more ginormous (she's a Breyer Halla remade by John Bellucci in the mid-1980s, by the way) to finish filling up this darn page so I can finish the issue--this page is the last thing that gets written--and get the whole shebang headed your way. Then off to bed. (I'll be perkier next issue, promise.)

Hope you'll have a cool Yule, and may 2024 be a happier, healthier New Year for us all!

-Sparky C.

Well, it's been an adventure...but here we are, soon to be seeing off 2023!

It's been an eye-opener of a year on this end. My Chinese zodiac animal is the Rabbit, and this is the Year of the Rabbit, in the 12-year cycle of things. The fifth time a Rabbit experiences that is said to be particularly hard on health, and man, can I attest to that.

Right now I'm dealing with side effects after radiation treatments last month, and am trying to stay positive that this will ease up sooner than later. My endometrial cancer thankfully got caught before it could spread much further, and after a hysterectomy in October and getting zapped up close and personal in the vicinity three weeks ago, here's hoping it won't be back.

Between that and my gall bladder surgery last March, there's a pretty serious crater where our finances used to be. To help pay the bills, Corky and I have been going through our various collections and selling what we can. So far we've been able to avoid parting with any vintage customs, and are trying to keep it that way.

But we've had to make some decisions. The 2024 VCMEC Live show will be postponed until at least 2025. The Vintage Custom Census will stay on the back burner for now.

Renovations we'd hoped to have done next spring/summer will also get pushed back to at least 2025. We had really hoped to open the VCMEC Museum next year, so will be thinking about the possibility of doing a "soft" open first, in virtual form.

We hope to hold the next VCMEC Online World Championships series on schedule, Sept. 2024-Dec. 2025. It'll be the fifth time the two-year series is held, and will complete a full decade of this event!

The 2022-23 VCMEC Online World Championships series is currently having the last of its six quarterly legs judged by but it's so subtle and well done. For an era when huge dapples and lots of chrome was very much in style, the artist went against the trend, and did it extremely well. If I had to pick one word to describe him, I'd choose 'yummy.'"

1980s DIVISION

BRIGANTE (AC)

Shire stallion ~ CM by Michelle Belisle in 1988

Susan writes, "This guy is another good example of his breed, and the workmanship is fantastic. Not only did the artist do a great job of transforming a standing horse into a galloping one, she also pulled off one of the hardest colors to do... black. Black models seem to lose a lot of their detail, but not this fellow. Were he real, I'd be complimenting his groom on the fantastic glossy bloom of his coat."

1990s DIVISION

CAMELOT'S HOT T' TROT (CM)

Miniature Horse stallion ~ CM by Lisa Rivera in 1993

Susan writes, "Spunk... this guy has it in spades! The facial shading is very well done. This is basically a white horse with very dark muzzle and shading around the eyes. It's easy to lose the expression when the contrast is that stark and you're only shading a small area, but the artist didn't lose a thing in this case. Coupled with just enough dappling without going overboard, this is a model that makes you look twice."

Victory Lap!

Shortly before press time, and without revealing who'd won what, owners of each division's Overall Champions and Reserve Champions were invited to share their thoughts about these star vintage customs. Here's what they said!

MUSTAFA BEY

Arabian stallion ~ CM by Julie Froelich in 1979

1960s/'70s Overall Champion Color, and Overall Reserve Champion Workmanship

Corky Visminas shared her thoughts on this awesome guy most recently in the Summer 2023 issue. You'll find it in our free online archive of issues, <http://www.vcmec.org/vcmec-model-horse-re-view-issues.html>!

TRANSMUTE CONDOR

1/2-Arabian, 1/4-P.O.A., 1/4-Welsh Sec. A stallion ~ CM by Nancy Strowger in 1978

1960s/'70s Overall Champion Breed

Ardith Carlton writes, "Liz Bouras once assessed this treasure as one of Nancy Strowger's nicest works. I'm so grateful to have become his new caretaker when Liz decided to part with him in 2012! Haven't yet been able to capture in a photo just how much of a heart-thumper he is--but when I look into that amazing face and the depths of those liquid eyes in person, oh my! It's astonishing to realize he was created 45 years ago. Nancy Strowger was so far ahead of her time...and still is!"

1990s WORKMANSHIP DIVISION OVERALL RESERVE CHAMPION: NIATROSS (AC)

Judge's Choice!

Judge Susan Stahl writes, "There were so many wonderful horses to choose from in this show, it's hard to pick just a few as personal favorites!"

1960s/'70s DIVISION

DANE TYLER BENNINGTON (LoB)

Morgan stallion ~ CM by Laura Hornick Behning in the late 1970s

Susan writes, "Not only is he a nice representation of the Morgan breed, I love his color and shading. He's solid dark chestnut,

AKASHA

Arabian filly ~ CM by Julie Froelich and Nancy Strowger in 1979

1960s/'70s Overall Champion Workmanship

Ardith Carlton writes, "This cutie was another purchase from Liz Bouras, back in 2010. We were thrilled to be her new home!

"The darndest thing happened with Akasha at Lucy Kusluch's GAPPWT ('Grown-Ass People Playing With Toys' ;-) ) live fun show in Texas in 2019. When we were getting ready for it, my partner Corky was searching for her family of vintage custom Classic Arabians by Julie Froelich--stallion Shuichi, mare *Enyaa, and baby Solana--to enter in the show's Family class. At that time our model horses were in storage, each wrapped in gauze-like floating row cover so air can reach them. After finding Shuichi and *Enyaa together, Corky brought along the Classic foal next to them without unwrapping it, since that of course would be Solana.

"When we got to the show, though, the foal turned out to be Akasha! Since Solana's tag was already written, Corky went ahead and entered Akasha as Solana--who would know?

"After the class, though, shower Lisa Wickham came over. 'Did that foal used to be named Akasha?' she asked. 'I judged her years ago in a photo show and have never forgotten her! What a tribute!'"

DIAMOND HANDSOME DEVIL

Trakehner stallion ~ CM by Kathleen Maestas in the late 1970s

1960s/'70s Overall Reserve Champion Breed

Betty Hook writes, "Frankly I bought Handsome Devil from someone. I don't even remember who. I knew only that was a Maestas, I thought he was handsome so I named him after my first Collie, Handsome Devil."

ROCKING CHAIR RENEGADE REVEL

Appaloosa stallion ~ CM by Jennifer Raymond in 1979

1960s/'70s Overall Reserve Champion Color

Cheryl Monroe writes, "Rescued from the many unwanted CMs at Marney Walerius' estate sale in 1992, this rather reserve colored Appy sat on my shelf for years. Rocking Chair Renegade Revel, a simple customized Adios by Jennifer Raymond, is an unassuming dark bay blanket Appaloosa stallion. He is very difficult to photograph; you could say he is 'camera shy'! I found an online photo of him at an early live show, so I know he WAS shown at some point in his previous stable/s. I like that he looks like a southern statesman."

FINDELYN BERRIYDD

Sec. D Welsh Cob stallion ~ CM by Laura Hornick-Behning in 1987

1980s Overall Champion Breed

Congratulations to Cheryl Monroe and one of her fabulous favorites, created from a Breyer Running Mare by Laura Hornick-Behning in 1987!

BRIGANTE

Shire stallion ~ CM by Michelle Belisle in 1988

1980s Overall Champion Color

Ardith Carlton writes, "In 1990, remembering my favorite teacher in high school, Mr. Joe Brigante ('Bri-GAHN-tee'), on the 10th anniversary of his abruptly passing away, it struck me that it could be something of a tribute if an outstanding model showhorse carried his name.

"At the time, entries were coming in for a photo show I was judging--and just like that, there was The Horse: a stunning Shire called Ebony Rock, astonishingly remade from a Breyer Clydesdale Mare by Michelle Belisle! His owner was thankfully willing to part with him--and with his new moniker, Brigante went on to become one of my winningest model showhorses. It's so gratifying that he's still a contender nowadays in vintage custom shows!

"Every time I see his name, I remember Mr. Brigante, who passed away at age 34. It's sobering that for nearly as long--33 years so far--his namesake has been a dear member of my herd. Thanks for this opportunity to share a little about him!"

"Oh nooooooooo!!!"

Coming up next in the Victory Lap, who else could it be but...

BLOODBATH HIGHWAY

Paint/Mustang-cross gelding ~ CM by Carol Williams in 1987

1980s Overall Champion Workmanship

Corky Visminas writes, "Often imitated but never duplicated, victim of an attempted kidnapping at the 1996 Model Horse Jamboree in California, the bronco who bucked off Mr. Bill at a Michigan live show, and the horse whose name has produced many a raised eyebrow or concerned glance in my direction, Bloodbath Highway is a Traditional-scale Black Beauty customized by Carol Williams in 1987.

"Although he arrived from Carol with his own custom-made bareback bronc rig, he's been shown in performance only very rarely--and he's always done surprisingly well in halter showing, even behaving as badly as he is!"

Ardith Carlton adds, "Although Corky light-heartedly mentioned that Bloodbath Highway was 'victim of an attempted kidnapping,' that really wasn't a joke.

"Having chaired and staffed NAMHSA's first-ever North American Nationals in 1995, Corky and I were eager to have our qualified horses compete in the next one, which was a serious trip away in California. We both worked for Hoof Beats magazine in Ohio then, and only one of us at a time could get away for such a long trip, so Corky nobly stayed home while I showed both her gang and mine at NAN and the next day's huge Model Horse Jamboree.

"Bloodbath Highway spends most of his time off of his removable stand, lying down on a cushiony cloth. Being a remade Breyer Traditional Black Beauty, he's one long fella, and before his class at Jamboree he was resting on the end of my table, beside one of the traffic aisles in that vast ballroom.

"Several rings were running at once, and after going up to retrieve my OF H-R large Amir, Escalflowne, and his ribbon, I was moving carefully back down the aisle toward my table with that precious cargo--just in time to see, a few people ahead in the traffic flow, a girl smoothly pluck Bloodbath Highway from the end of my table and keep on going.

"No OF H-R large Amir has ever moved faster! Suddenly I was beside the girl, telling her 'That's my horse, thank you,' and taking Bloodbath Highway out of her hands without any resistance. She hesitated, and for a moment our eyes met; she was a young teen-looking girl, and she looked terrified. Then she hurried on, empty-handed, back into the crowd.

"I was too stunned to do much more than bring both horses back to the table, and then sit and shake as what had almost happened hit me. The incident put show-ers in our area of the floor on the alert, and after I let show hostess Sheryl Leis-ure at the opposite end of the bustling ballroom know about the theft attempt, her security staff kept a sharp eye out.

"Bloodbath Highway made it safely home to Corky. And since then, adrenaline rushes like that have been few and far between for me, whew!"

CHIRIN'S BELL

Tennessee Walking Horse mare ~ CM by Judy Renee Pope in 1986

1980s Overall Reserve Champion Breed

Ardith Carlton writes, "From the first moment I saw EF Tubular Bells, I was all kinds of crazy for her--and still am! Created by Judy Renee Pope, she was one of the headliners in Illinois hobbyist Lienna Goreth's Ephrata Farm showstring in the latter '80s. Between her neat roany coat, striking sabino splashes, deep blue eyes, and appealingly mixy mane and tail, as well as being a Plantation TWH (she made me an instant fan of that flat-shod, naturally gaited aspect of the breed), this marvelous mare was right in my strike zone. I was so thrilled to be in time when Lienna decided to part with her! Shown as her 'daughter' Chirin's Bell, she's been one of my dearest favorites for more than 30 years now. I'm so tickled that she did so well in this leg of the VCMEC series!"

APACHE RED CHIEF

Paint stallion ~ CM by Lisa Rivera (Shepard) in 1988

1980s Overall Reserve Champion Color and Workmanship

Cheryl Monroe writes, "Apache Red Chief is a Breyer CM by Lisa Rivera-Shepard around 1988. He was purchased directly from the artist after he did well at the Chicago Model Horse Congress held by Marney Walerius. I begged for him and Lisa finally gave in. He is very striking and has that charisma that just says, 'Look at ME!' He has been lightly shown and does pretty well for an Adios!"

LE COMTE DE MONTE CRISTO

Belgian stallion ~ CM by Lisa Rivera (Shepard) in 1995

1990s Overall Champion Breed

Cheryl Monroe writes, "Le Comte De Monte Cristo is a drastic CM Breyer Clydesdale Mare! He is another Lisa Shepard marvel! He was previously owned by Robin Clark under his original name of Cinnabar's Conquest, and she acquired him directly from Lisa. He did very well in Robin's stable, and has begun anew in mine.

"He is named after a real Belgian from the 1890s and is an ancestor of Congolaise, a famous Belgian stallion. His name translates from French to the English 'The Count of Monte Cristo,' the book by Alexandre Dumas. I've always enjoyed the book, so naming him after the title character was easy."

SIGNATURE

Appaloosa stallion ~ CM by Chris Nandell (Flint) in 1995

1990s Overall Champion Color

Meghann Hoscheid writes, "Signature is an Adios custom created by the ever-so-talented Chris Nandell, now Chris Flint, in 1995. He is a longtime favorite amongst my collection. It has been such an honor to have been his caretaker for the past 12 years.

"I have to say, I still adore this custom every bit now as I did many years ago, when I first saw him competing in photo shows. I was instantly drawn to his eye-catching pattern and soft life-like finish that is very 'signature' of her work throughout the years. She has such a distinct way of bringing her creations to life that I admire."

SHIRAMBA KAMUI

Morab gelding ~ CM by Sarah Minkiewicz(-Breunig) in 1997

1990s Overall Champion Workmanship

Ardith Carlton writes, "After some 20 years of longing to have a remake by Sarah Minkiewicz, the planets finally came into alignment in early 2011 when Barb Ness sold me this astonishing fellow who was once a Hagen-Renaker large Zara!

"Corky and I lived in Japan at the time, and he made the journey halfway around the world bedded in foam rubber. The day after he arrived, I brought him to work to shoot this photo behind the company's warehouse looking out at the foothills of Mt. Mikamo, then put him back in his foam-rubber-filled box for just a bit to figure out the best place to display him at home--and then Japan's monster 9.1 quake hit!

"He thankfully rode the quake out safely in his cushy 'box stall,' and in 2019 made it back home to the U.S. with us, too. We're so honored to have him!"

AMANTUS VS

Trakener stallion ~ CM by Diane Capwell in the early 1990s

1990s Overall Reserve Champion Breed

Shannon Rodgers writes, "Yayyyyyy!"

"Amantus VS embodies the strong characteristics of a handsome Trakehner stud, from his proud arched neck to his American version of the antler brand. Diane Capwell is known for her stunning shading and painterly technique, and it is through the international connection of VCMEC I was able to obtain this gorgeous boy for my herd! I'm very proud to be his guardian and he's been joining me for live shows as well."

ABRAXAS

Fjord stallion ~ CM by Lisa Rivera (Shepard) in 1992

1990s Overall Reserve Champion Color

Ardith Carlton writes, "In the '90s, I lived in Columbus, Ohio, home of one of the most jaw-dropping collections of custom model horses on the planet: the collection of Ann Bilon! Every so often Ann would sell one of her stars (or even make a gift of it--I was floored to receive Cowboy Poetry, a grulla Paint CM by Lisa Rivera I'd admired for years!), and when she decided to sell Abraxas, I was thrilled to make him mine!

"I live-showed just once in the 2000s, and when I put him in the CM ring that time, a judge informed me that original sculptures show with Artist Resins. I explained he was a custom; she insisted he was an original sculpture because she didn't recognize the mold.

"'As soon as you know what he started as, you'll recognize it,' I said. 'He started as a Breyer Justin Morgan.' 'Ohhh,' she slowly nodded, 'I see it now.'

"Gotta love vintage customs--back then, serious customs were serious CUSTOMS!"

NIATROSS

Standardbred stallion ~ CM by Lisa Rivera (Shepard) in 1993

1990s Overall Reserve Champion Workmanship

Ardith Carlton writes, "As a kid I idolized Niatross, the greatest Standardbred that ever lived—and was thrilled years later when Lisa Rivera (now Shepard) accepted the commission to create a portrait model of him. Rather than start with a Breyer Pacer or other Traditional sport-type model, she made something even more unique by customizing a Classic Kelso! Making this model all the more dear to me is the fact that his tail later gained some hair from the mane of the real Niatross, thanks to the kindness of Niatross' handlers when the champion came out of retirement to greet fans at The Red Mile in 1996."
