Biography

Carol A. Williamson, age 88 of Caseville, was gathered into the arms of Jesus on November 26, 2024. She was born on December 2, 1935 in Detroit, MI, daughter of the late Elmer Naumann and Laura (Klockow) Brown. She married the love of her life Terrance A. Williamson on June 22, 1956 at Bethany Lutheran Church in Detroit, MI. Carol was a loving wife, mother, and grandmother. Her life was a beautiful testament to love, service, and faith. She lived a life full of joy, generosity, and purpose. She created countless treasured memories with her husband moving many times and traveling the world. She was known for her vibrant spirit and love for life's simple pleasures including the beach, sunsets, and a good caramel frappe. She also spent many happy hours with the Red Hat Society, playing Bunko, or playing cards with friends. Her faith was the cornerstone of her life. She dedicated herself to serving others, joyfully volunteering at the local food pantry and contributing at church folding bulletins, welcoming new members, counting change, LWML, and handing out cookies at Vacation Bible School. She always had a way of making everyone feel special and loved. Though she will be deeply missed, her legacy of love, faith, and joy will live on in all who were blessed to know her.
