Story & Toddler Time

We are back in session!

What a refreshing start to a new year for Story and Toddler Times! So far, we've had so much fun, made new friends, and danced our hearts out! The kids love to come and play at the library. We sing and dance and jump around to get all of those wiggles and giggles out. They've gotten so good at the Days of the Week, Months of the Year, and their ABCs.

Welcoming everyone back was such a great week for the library. It had been so quiet and slow without the kiddos running around. Jane really missed them most of all.

We've kicked off a great year with lessons on kindness and friendship, and made the coolest Friendship Trees! The Pittsburgh Zoomobile was here! We met some neat animals and learned a great deal about other animals, too.

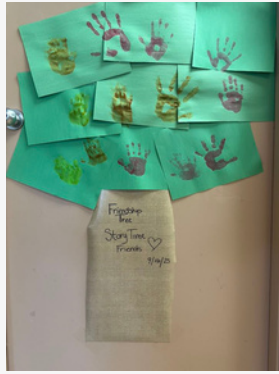

We celebrated the beginning of Autumn, too! The kids made the cutest little handprint trees with real leaves.

Story Time went on a little field trip to the Carmichaels Elementary Reading Trail by the softball field. Mrs. Menhart and her students took us around the trail and shared with us this really great project that the kids and parents/grandparents really enjoyed! It was wonderful weather and really great time.

Now onto October....

We even got to celebrate one of our littles from Toddler Time:
he has already read 1,000 books:
Congratulations Conner!
