Visit Ireland on this customized nursing program. Located off the north-western coast of the European mainland in Western Europe, you will have a chance to explore both Dublin and Cork. A place of gorgeous natural beauty and its equally charming locals, they have a dynamic cultural history and strong sense of community.

Program Highlights

- Accompanying guest program – alternate activities will be provided for those who do not wish to attend the meetings.
- Optional post-program extension to County Clare & Limerick.
- Nanda Journeys and the University of Pittsburgh School of Nursing are collaborating to present the Holistic Nursing Journey. Professional Nurses participating in the activity and completing the evaluation tool may receive a maximum of 8.0 nursing continuing professional development contact hours. The University of Pittsburgh School of Nursing is accredited as a provider of nursing continuing professional development by the American Nurses Credentialing Center’s Commission on Accreditation.

Focus on Nursing & Nursing Education

- Meaningful interaction and collaboration between program participants and professionals in Ireland will include meetings with holistic nursing professionals in Dublin and Cork.
- Discuss topics of mutual interest including the inroads they are making to spread awareness around holistic and traditional care and how they can complement Western medicine.
- Learn what programs are available for training and advancement of holistic medicine in Ireland today. What holistic principles, presence and teaching/learning strategies do they have?

Focus on the Community & Culture

- Explore some of the iconic sites of Ireland, including Blarney Castle and Woolen Mills, as well as the Ring of Kerry.
- Put on your dancing shoes for a visit to O’Shea’s Merchant Pub where you can learn Irish dancing (or just observe) and enjoy some traditional music.

Program Leader: Carole Ann Drick, PhD, RN, AHN-BC

Carole Ann is a former president of the American Holistic Nurses Association. She currently serves as director of the Conscious Living Center in Austintown, Ohio. Her passion for quality of life began with 12 years as a labor and delivery nurse and natural childbirth educator. Entering academia for 10 years, she searched for the right place to bring holism and presence into health care. After being on graduate faculties of two large universities, she developed and implemented a new BSN program based on holistic principles, presence and adult teaching/learning strategies that received full initial NLN accreditation only to return to a hands-on practice. She has authored or co-authored several books and numerous professional publications as well as meditation CDs.
