

Together Frankfort is a non-partisan, volunteer group of Kentuckians who seek to exercise and protect the principles embodied in our nation's Constitution by being engaged and responsible participants in democracy.

We advocate for integrity and transparency in government and political actions, and fair and equal application of the law and civil rights for all people.

We support economic and social policies that ensure continuing opportunities for individuals and families.

We are committed to our country and to the welfare of our fellow citizens regardless of political affiliation, and to solutions that cross partisan divides.

Membership is open to all. Please sign up, participate, teach, learn, and act!

Together Frankfort

Thank you for your interest in Together Frankfort! A volunteer civic engagement group, we formed on January 6, 2017, in response to concerns about public policies, particularly those which impact women and families.

Early in 2017, we defined our priorities, with an emphasis on:

1. Increasing civic engagement and education on national policies, including campaign finance, the environment, healthcare, and tax reform;
2. Helping improve voter participation and voter education on public issues;
3. Communicating our concerns to elected officials, and;
4. Forming partnerships with like-minded organizations.

Together Frankfort Coordinators are: Karen Armstrong-Cummings, Gae Broadwater, Karen Carey, Kemba Cofield, Mary Lynn Collins, Judy Goddard, Dantrea Hampton, Bill Klier, Kathy Murphy, Patti Porter, Barbara Hadley Smith, Margaret Townsley, and Linda Waller.

Barbara Hadley Smith chairs our Coordinators Team. Meetings, held twice a month, are open to all. Because of the pandemic, we meet virtually. All are welcome to attend.
