OK maybe not, but I do like them like this.

COLD BEETS

Trim off leaves to about 1" of beets. Put them in a large pot of water and cook them until you can stick a knife into them ( $\frac{1}{2}$  to  $\frac{3}{4}$  hr). Cool them. (I pour off the hot water and refill the pot with cold water). Pop off the skins and slice the beets.

Mix the following ingredients and pour over beets.

$\frac{1}{4}$ cup vinegar	$\frac{1}{4}$ cup orange juice
$\frac{1}{4}$ cup sugar	$\frac{1}{2}$ tsp peeled & chopped ginger

Chill beets. You can grate some orange peel onto them just before serving. I also sometimes add thin slices of red onions.
