

JEREMY E. BARRY

1972 - 1992

Jeremy E. Barry, age 20, formerly of Huron County and a member of the U.S. Army, died Monday, March 16, while stationed in Hanau, Germany.

He was born March 2, 1972 in Saginaw, son of Eugene Barry and Bernice (McGeachy) Barry. He was a member of the 149th Maintenance Co. of the U.S. Army and a 1990 graduate of Elkton-Pigeon-Bay Port High School.

Surviving are his mother, Bernice of Bad Axe, his father, Eugene of Elkton; five sisters, Jan (Randy) Peyerck of Fillion, Jo (Steven) Wolschlager of Bad Axe, Jean (Joseph) Dean of Yale, Geryl Barry of Saginaw, Jana Barry of Kinde; two brothers, James of Elk Rapids, and Jefferty of Orlando, Florida; and maternal grandfather, James McGeachy of Bad Axe.

Funeral services will be Wednesday, March 25 (today), at 11 a.m. from the Knoblock Funeral Home, Kinde. Sister Maryellen McDonald, pastoral administrator of St. Felix Catholic Church, Pinnebog, will officiate. Burial will be in the church cemetery.