Call to Worship – “It is Well with My Soul” – St. Paul's Choir

Please stand for Entrance Song and the Confession and Absolution

Entrance Song of Worship – LSB #657 A Mighty Fortress

CONFESSION AND ABSOLUTION

P: In the name of the Father and the † Son and of the Holy Spirit.

C: Amen.

P: Beloved in the Lord! Let us draw near with a true heart and confess our sins unto God our Father, beseeching Him in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ to grant us forgiveness.

P: Our help is in the name of the Lord,

C: who made heaven and earth.

P: I said, I will confess my transgressions unto the Lord,

C: and You forgave the iniquity of my sin.

Silence for reflection of God's Word and for self-examination.

P: Almighty God, Merciful Father,

C: I, a poor, miserable sinner, confess unto You all my sins and iniquities with which I have ever offended You and justly deserve Your temporal and eternal punishment. But I am heartily sorry for them and sincerely repent of them, and I pray You of Your boundless mercy and for the sake of the holy, innocent, bitter sufferings and death of Your beloved Son, Jesus Christ, to be gracious and merciful to me, a poor, sinful being.

P: Upon this your confession, I, by virtue of my office, as a called servant of the Word, announce the grace of God unto all of you in the stead and by the command of my Lord Jesus Christ, I forgive you all your sins in the name of the Father and of the † Son and of the Holy Spirit,

C: Amen.

SERVICE OF THE WORD

PSALM 85:8-13 The congregation responds with the bold sections.

Let me hear what God the LORD will speak, for He will speak peace to His people, to His saints; but let them not turn back to folly.

Surely His salvation is near to those who fear Him, that glory may dwell in our land.

Steadfast love and faithfulness meet;

righteousness and peace kiss each other.

Faithfulness springs up from the ground, and righteousness looks down from the sky.

Yes, the LORD will give what is good,

and our land will yield its increase.

Righteousness will go before Him and make His footsteps a way.

(sung) Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost; as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

KYRIE (sung)

Lord, have mercy upon us.

Christ, have mercy upon us.

Lord, have mercy upon us.

THIS IS THE FEAST (sung)

This is the feast of victory for our God. Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

Worthy is Christ, the Lamb who was slain, whose blood set us free to be people of God.

This is the feast of victory for our God. Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

Power, riches, wisdom, and strength, and honor, blessing and glory are His.

This is the feast of victory for our God. Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

Sing with all the people of God, and join in the hymn of all creation:

Blessing, honor, glory, and might be to God and the Lamb forever. Amen.

This is the feast of victory for our God. Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

For the Lamb who was slain has begun His reign. Alleluia.

This is the feast of victory for our God. Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

SALUTATION AND COLLECT OF THE DAY

P: The Lord be with you.

C: (sung) And with thy spirit.

P: Let us pray.....

C: (sung) Amen

Please be seated for the Readings

1ST READING – AMOS 7:7-15

This is what [the Lord GOD] showed me: behold, the Lord was standing beside a wall built with a plumb line, with a plumb line in His hand. And the LORD said to me, "Amos, what do you see?" And I said, "A plumb line." Then the Lord said, "Behold, I am setting a plumb line in the midst of My people Israel; I will never again pass by them; the high places of Isaac shall be made desolate, and the sanctuaries of Israel shall be laid waste, and I will rise against the house of Jeroboam with the sword." Then Amaziah the priest of Bethel sent to Jeroboam king of Israel, saying, "Amos has conspired against you in the midst of the house of Israel. The land is not able to bear all his words. For thus Amos has said, "'Jeroboam shall die by the sword, and Israel must go into exile away from his land.'" And Amaziah said to Amos, "O seer, go, flee away to the land of Judah, and eat bread there, and prophesy there, but never again prophesy at Bethel, for it is the king's sanctuary, and it is a temple of the kingdom." Then Amos answered and said to Amaziah, "I was no prophet, nor a prophet's son, but I was a herdsman and a dresser of sycamore figs. But the LORD took me from following the flock, and the LORD said to me, 'Go, prophesy to My people Israel.'

L: This is the Word of the Lord.

C: Thanks be to God.

EPISTLE LESSON – EPHESIANS 1:3-14

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us in Christ with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places, even as He chose us in Him before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and blameless before Him. In love He predestined us for adoption through Jesus Christ, according to the purpose of His will, to the praise of His glorious grace, with which He has blessed us in the Beloved. In Him we have redemption through His blood, the forgiveness of our trespasses, according to the riches of His grace, which He lavished upon us, in all wisdom and insight making known to us the mystery of His will, according to His purpose, which He set forth in Christ as a plan for the fullness of time, to unite all things in Him, things in heaven and things on earth. In Him we have obtained an inheritance, having been predestined according to the purpose of Him who works all things according to the counsel of His will, so that we who were the first to hope in Christ might be to the praise of His glory. In Him you also, when you heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation, and believed in Him, were sealed with the promised Holy Spirit, who is the guarantee of our inheritance until we acquire possession of it, to the praise of His glory.

L: This is the Word of the Lord.

C: Thanks be to God.

Please stand for the reading of the Holy Gospel

C: (sung) Alleluia. Alleluia. Alleluia.

HOLY GOSPEL – ST. MARK 6:14-29

P: The Holy Gospel according to St. Mark the 6th chapter.

C: (sung) Glory be to Thee, O Lord.

King Herod heard of it, for Jesus' name had become known. Some said, "John the Baptist has been raised from the dead. That is why these miraculous powers are at work in Him." But others said, "He is Elijah." And others said, "He is a prophet, like one of the prophets of old." But when Herod heard of it, he said, "John, whom I beheaded, has been raised." For it was Herod who had sent and seized John and bound him in prison for the sake of Herodias, his brother Philip's wife, because he had married her. For John had been saying to Herod, "It is not lawful for you to have your brother's wife." And Herodias had a grudge against him and wanted to put him to death. But she could not, for Herod feared John, knowing that he was a righteous and holy man, and he kept him safe. When he heard him, he was greatly perplexed, and yet he heard him gladly. But an opportunity came when Herod on his birthday gave a banquet for his nobles and military commanders and the leading men of Galilee. For when Herodias's daughter came in and danced, she pleased Herod and his guests. And the king said to the girl, "Ask me for whatever you wish, and I will give it to you." And he vowed to her, "Whatever you ask me, I will give you, up to half of my kingdom." And she went out and said to her mother, "For what should I ask?" And she said, "The head of John the Baptist." And she came in immediately with haste to the king and asked, saying, "I want you to give me at once the head of John the Baptist on a platter." And the king was exceedingly sorry, but because of his oaths and his guests he did not want to break his word to her. And immediately the king sent an executioner with orders to bring John's head. He went and beheaded him in the prison and brought his head on a platter and gave it to the girl, and the girl gave it to her mother. When his disciples heard of it, they came and took his body and laid it in a tomb.

P: Here ends the reading of the Holy Gospel.

C: (sung) Praise be to Thee, O Christ.

NICENE CREED

I believe in one God,

the Father Almighty,

maker of heaven and earth

and of all things visible and invisible.

And in one Lord Jesus Christ,

the only-begotten Son of God,

begotten of His Father before all worlds,

God of God, Light of Light,

very God of very God,

begotten not made,

being of one substance with the Father,

by whom all things were made;

who for us men and for our salvation came down from heaven and was incarnate by the Holy Spirit of the Virgin Mary and was made man;

and was crucified also for us under Pontius Pilate.

He suffered and was buried.

And the third day He rose again according to the Scriptures

and ascended into heaven and sits at the right hand of the Father.

And He will come again with glory to judge both the living and the dead, whose kingdom will have no end.

And I believe in the Holy Spirit,

the Lord and giver of life,

who proceeds from the Father and the Son,

who with the Father and the Son together is worshiped and glorified, who spoke by the prophets.

And I believe in one holy Christian and apostolic Church,

I acknowledge one Baptism for the remission of sins,

and I look for the resurrection of the dead

and the life † of the world to come. Amen

DISPOSITION OF ORIGINAL ST. PAUL'S LUTHERAN CHURCH

At this point, the Congregation processes to the Original Church Building singing the following Hymn:

FOR ALL THE SAINTS

For all the saints who from their labors rest,
Who Thee by faith before the world confessed,
Thy name, O Jesus, be forever blest.
Alleluia! Alleluia!

Thou wast their rock, their fortress, and their might;
Thou, Lord, their captain in the well-fought fight;
Thou, in the darkness drear, their one true light.

Alleluia! Alleluia!

*Oh may Thy soldiers, faithful, true, and bold,
Fight as the saints who nobly fought of old
And win with them the victor's crown of gold!
Alleluia! Alleluia!*

*The golden evening brightens in the west;
Soon, soon to faithful warriors cometh rest;
Sweet is the calm of paradise the blest.
Alleluia! Alleluia!*

P: Beloved in the Lord, this church with its furnishings and vessels has been used for divine services since it was opened and dedicated in 1911. As we now close this facility as a place of Christian purpose, we remember with gratitude to God all the blessings He has given to us and to those who have gone before us.

Psalm 48: The congregation responds with the bold sections.

We have thought on Your steadfast love, O God,

In the midst of Your temple.

Great is the LORD and greatly to be praised

In the city of our God!

His holy mountain, beautiful in elevation, is the joy of all the earth,

Mount Zion, in the far north, the city of the great King.

Within her citadels

God has made Himself known as a fortress.

As we have heard, so have we seen in the city of the LORD of hosts, in the city of our God,

Which God will establish forever.

We have thought on Your steadfast love, O God,

In the midst of Your temple.

As Your name, O God, so Your praise reaches to the ends of the earth.

Your right hand is filled with righteousness.

This is God, our God forever and ever.

He will guide us forever.

Spoken -

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit; as it was in the beginning is now, and will be forever. Amen

We have thought on Your steadfast love O God,
in the midst of Your temple.

P: The Lord be with you.

C: And also with you

P: Let us pray.

Lord God, heavenly Father, the unfailing giver of good gifts, we give thanks to You for Your presence in this place. We implore You to dwell among us continually with Your Word and Sacraments so that by Your grace we poor sinners may be converted to You and saved eternally; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

C: Amen.

† A brief history of the original St. Paul's Lutheran Church will be shared.

"My Tribute" – sung by Lois Beverage

† Specific members of the congregation will come forward to receive the furnishings and sacramental vessels.

At the pulpit:

P: Faith comes from hearing, and hearing through the word of Christ.

Romans 10:17

We preach Christ crucified a stumbling block to Jew and folly to Gentiles, but to those who are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ the power of God and the wisdom of God.

1 Corinthians 1:23-24

The Bible and paraments are removed.

At the altar:

P: Let my prayer rise before you as incense, the lifting up of my hands as the evening sacrifice.

Psalm 141:2

The missal stand and Altar Book are removed.

P: Jesus said, "I am the light of the world. Whoever follows me will not walk in darkness, but will have the light of life."

John 8:12

The candlesticks are removed.

P: As often as you eat this bread and drink the cup, you proclaim the Lord's death until he comes.

1 Corinthians 11:26

The communion vessels, altar linens, and paraments are removed.

P: Far be it from me to boast except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, by which the world has been crucified to Me, and I to the world.

Galatians 6:14

The cross or crucifix is removed.

P: Let us go forth in peace,

C: in the name of the Lord.

P: This church building is closed as a place for Christian purposes in the name of the Father and of the † Son and of the Holy Spirit.

C: Amen.

The pastor locks the doors and says:

P: Let us bless the Lord.

C: Thanks be to God.

P: The Lord bless you and keep you.

The Lord make His face shine upon you and be gracious to you.

The Lord lift up His countenance upon you and † give you peace.

C: Amen.

Sending Song of Worship – Lift High the Cross

*Lift high the cross, the love of Christ proclaim
Till all the world adore His sacred name.*

*Come Christians, follow where our Captain trod
Our King victorious, Christ, the Son of God.
Lift high the cross, the love of Christ proclaim
Till all the world adore His sacred name.*

*Led on their way by this triumphant sign,
The hosts of God in conqu'ring ranks combine.
Lift high the cross, the love of Christ proclaim
Till all the world adore His sacred name.*

*All new-born soldiers of the Crucified
Bear on their brows the seal of Him who died.
Lift high the cross, the love of Christ proclaim
Till all the world adore His sacred name.*

*O Lord once lifted on the glorious tree
As Thou hast promised, draw us all to Thee.
Lift high the cross, the love of Christ proclaim
Till all the world adore His sacred name.*

*Let ev'ry race and ev'ry language tell
Of Him who saves our lives from death and hell.
Lift high the cross, the love of Christ proclaim
Till all the world adore His sacred name.*

*So shall our song of triumph ever be:
Praise to the Crucified for victory!
Lift high the cross, the love of Christ proclaim
Till all the world adore His sacred name.*

The Rev. Timothy McNutt
St. Paul's Lutheran Church
37707 New Market-Turner Road
Mechanicsville, MD 20659-3075

Dear Pastor McNutt and Members of St. Paul's:

As I greet you today, let me borrow the words of Paul to the Thessalonians: "We always thank God for all of you, continually mentioning you in our prayers. We remember before our God and Father your work produced by faith, your labor prompted by love, and your endurance inspired by hope in our Lord Jesus Christ" (1 Thessalonians 1: 2-3).

I thank you for the invitation to celebrate with you on July 12, as you decommission this historic building. While I am unable to be with you in person, I am with you in spirit, and will be keeping you in thought and prayer. May God give you a beautiful day to celebrate.

I join you in praising God for His blessing upon you, and I pray that even as this chapter in your history closes, you grow ever stronger in outreach to the children and families of your community.

July 8, 2015

Dear Friends in Christ at St. Paul's,

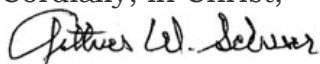

A long standing preaching commitment keeps me from being present with you on July 12, but my thoughts go back over 50 years to the days when I would drive my '64 Mustang up that tree-lined drive to the little white church on the hill. There was no indoor plumbing, just a double-hole outhouse in the parking lot. An annual swarming of termites could be expected from the stumps of trees under the church, and there were two entirely separate rooms until Bobby Moeller knocked out a wall to provide for expanded seating. Heat came from a temperamental in-floor stove. Air conditioning came from open windows. But it was God's House and beautiful to us.

More important than the building, however, are the memories of the hundreds of people who over the years were baptized, confirmed, married, or buried from that church. Many of them were important figures in your lives.

But the people of St. Paul's have always seen the mission of serving Christ and His people as more important than the preservation of facilities. Maybe it started by Bobby Moeller knocking down that wall his relatives had helped to build. Later the old parsonage was turned into an educational building (with indoor plumbing), then by the construction of a new worship and fellowship area, now with additional expansion that means the little white church will give up its place to new facilities as able to serve the current and future generations as it did the generations of the past.

And so on this day I remember the past, but more importantly, I rejoice that you are still lively enough to look to the future and to value an expansion of ministry over a decaying monument to what used to be. God bless your ministry!

Cordially, in Christ,

Arthur W. Scherer

Rev. Dr. Arthur W. Scherer, President Emeritus, Southeastern District, Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod

PASTOR ERIC PETERSON

Dear St. Paul's,

I wish I could be with you this morning as you thank God for the blessings that he provided through the ministry in the old chapel.

So many wonderful memories. The wooden sanctuary will always have a special place in my heart because it is where I started out my ministry.

St. Paul said he did not hold onto the past but looked to the future God had prepared for him. As God's people we know the best is yet to come.

God in his grace has prepared the blessing that we need. God's blessings to you.

Love, Pastor Eric Peterson

Rev. Dr. James G. Stoltenberg

Dear Saints of St. Paul's,

Almost 41 years ago to the date I was Ordained and Installed as St. Paul's first full time pastor (July 7, 1974). St. Paul was my first call and really my first love. I was so excited. Fourteen subdivisions and the possibility of growing a church was a reality. We invited Richard Hintz from the Southeastern District to help us develop a Master Plan for us. First a multipurpose building. Then an education wing and finally tear down the parish house and build a sanctuary.

The little white church surrounded by tobacco fields on three sides. Our architect, John Corkill said that we should ask Willie Moeller to give the church the land down below or one day there would be a "big box store" would move in and no one would be able to see the church any more. (Was he a prophet?)

I remember arriving in the Southern heat of the Summer. No thought was given to a church office. I brought a typewriter, but we did not have any equipment to print bulletins with. Pastor Eric Peterson, the last of the duo-parish pastors, convinced Grace to buy new equipment and give us their old machinery.

As that first Winter arrived I learned about the "hell hole" in the church. An oil fired furnace with a large grate in the floor known as the "hell hole." For about 2 pews near the "hell hole" one would sweat. Two pews back from there the temp. was just right. Beyond that people would be freezing! Then with the help of Freddie Benton we installed electric heater which kept everyone from freezing.

The church would hold about 50 and the "wing" about 40. When the church would sing a hymn it would always sound like an echo, with the wing always a little behind the church. There would be Dorthea playing the organ between the two groups.

Then we had the “black” era, when after painting the church we found out that all the paint we used had been stolen from Andrews Airforce Base and the newly installed cross had been cut from a piece of steel stolen from the Walter Reed Army Hospital. We had to ask the question, “Will God bless a HOT church?”

And who of us “geezer” can forget how the church was broken into, and poker was played inside with money that had been in the slot machines which were broken open on the tomb stones in our cemetery. How someone was walking around with lite candles and started our old paraments on fire -- with the insurance money buying new parament for the new church.

The old church holds many wonderful memories for me and my family. Two of our three children were baptized there, one during a Christmas Eve Service. The weddings, and funerals for the faithful member who worked so hard serving their Lord and Savior in Southern Maryland.

God's continued blessings on your mission and ministry
