

Staff Infection

On Friday night the staff was infected because they did not wash their neckerchiefs. It was up to you to find the vaccine and bring it back to headquarters. Finding the third most vials was Troop 50, while Troop 78 came in second place. Finding the most vials were the scouts of Troop 1.

Obstacle Course

On Saturday morning, Scouts from around camp gathered in Campcraft to run the obstacle course. In 3rd place was the Wolverine Patrol of Troop 99, in second place was the Stag Patrol of Troop 78, and the winners were the Eagle Patrol of Troop 50.

Paul Bunyan Field Day 2010

Once again, Campcraft and Trailblazers put together a challenging yet fun day of activities for the scouts from all the Troops.

Paul Bunyan

Field Day featured tug-of-war, flapjack flipping and the always entertaining Scoutmaster look-a-like. Placing in third was Troop 1, second Troop 66 and coming out on top, Troop 78. Winning the coveted Tug-of-War was Troop 1.

Future Scouts

On Wednesday night a future scout came back in time to see what scouting is like today, he asked us to bring him things we use to instruct merit badges in present times. You came up to the parade field to find all the things he needed at 8:30. The Troop finding the third most items was the Troop 93. In second place the Troop 29, and finding the most items was Troop 50.

HSR Team

Monday night you helped us save the HSR team from their impending doom. Finding the 3rd most clues was Troop 50's Eagle Patrol, finding the second most items was Troop 50's Wolf Patrol, and finding the most items was Troop 93's Super Patrol. Great job to everyone who participated.

Do you know the power of Pine Sol?

Throughout this week you cleaned your campsite from top to bottom to see if you could achieve the clean camp award.

As in any contest there are winners. Having the third most clean campsite was Troops 78 and 50, having the second cleanest campsite was Troop 1, and coming in first with the cleanest campsites all week was Troops 704, and 119.

Halt 1, 2!

Every evening at Camp Horseshoe Troops gather at the parade field to retire the colors before dinner. All Troops compete for the coveted marching trophy but only one ends up on top.
