

The Bulletin is a full-color glossy magazine published nine times per year (September through May) by the Saginaw County Medical Society (SCMS) and has an electronic and hard copy distribution of 1,000+ per issue to member physicians and staff of all specialties throughout Saginaw County, hospital executives and staff, clinics, physician groups, other county medical societies, Michigan State Medical Society executives and medically related businesses/organizations in Saginaw, Bay and Midland Counties. The Bulletin is read by an impressive cross section of the health care community, and is available on our website www.SaginawCountyMS.com one year after the date of publication.

The pages of the The Bulletin are filled with insightful features affecting these member physicians, and include articles that focus on new developments in the ever changing health care field. The Bulletin also reports SCMS activities, events, services, new member and officer profiles, and information submitted by CMU College of Medicine, Covenant HealthCare and St. Mary's of Michigan.

Advertising is accepted on a first come, first served basis depending on available space. All ads are randomly placed except for the inside front and back covers, and outside back cover. Competing businesses will NOT be placed on facing pages.
