

Tracy is a veterinary assistant from Chicago, IL. She studied Veterinary Technology at Purdue and Computer Science at Prairie State College. Tracy came to work for Central Kentucky Veterinary in 2010.

Tracy is a breeder of French Bulldogs and Bullmastiffs. She loves to do Showmanship in both the working and confirmation rings. She is a member of both parent clubs and is highly active in both rescues. She absolutely loves the outdoors where she can hike and explore nature's beautiful creatures from tiny bugs to soaring birds and slimy reptiles to fuzzy mammals.
