Biography

IRA D. WRUBEL, age 91 of Harbor Beach, passed away Saturday, December 12, 2020 at McLaren Port Huron Hospital. He was born on January 21, 1929 to the late Michael and Mary (Mika) Wrubel. Ira and Gladys Booms were united in marriage on October 27, 1951 at Sts. Peter and Paul Catholic Church in Ruth. She preceded him in death on August 18, 2020. Ira served in the US Army from 1951-1953. Ira was a hardworking, innovative, dairy farmer. There was no task he couldn't perform and everything was fixable. He loved to play cards, especially pinochle. He also enjoyed hunting, fishing, travelling with his beautiful bride, Gladys, and working with his hands. He most notably, loved his beautiful wife Gladys. He doted on her and cared for her for 69 years of marriage. In his lifetime, he not only served his country, but provided for his family. He built his family home after their home was destroyed by a fire. He ran his dairy farm while working several jobs to support his family. He was a lifelong member of OLLH Catholic Church, and instilled his strong Christian beliefs into his family. He taught his children to be like him, determined and hard working. He will always be our hero, strongest man we know.
