Keeping Your Home Safe While On Vacation

Going on vacation can be hectic, but having a checklist can ensure a smooth and safe trip. Your checklist can include remembering your toothbrush, unplugging appliances, and securing your home. Here are some ideas you can add to that checklist to make your home a little safer while you're gone:

- Keep your doorstep clean by putting a hold on mail and newspaper delivery.
- Have a friend or neighbor remove leaflets and flyers from your door.
- Keep the grass in the front and side yards neat and trimmed.
- Tell family members & trusted neighbors your travel plans.
- Install light timers for your indoor and outdoor lights.
- Don't leave status updates on Facebook or Twitter saying you're out of town. Wait until you get home to upload pictures of all the fun you had.
- Install motion-activated security cameras that let you monitor your home with your smartphone.
