

Passover Resurrection Prayer

4,10,2020 ~ Rachael Martin

Praying into God's will for each of us through this season of celebrating God's power and love and celebrating that death has no sting because Jesus conquered the grave! Yes, we will all at some point leave this earthly body but it takes knowing Jesus as our Lord – as our Savior to have peace about our final destination!

Death where is your sting? Jesus has risen – He has risen indeed! He has the keys of hell and of death and we are forever grateful! That means that we can ask Jesus and only Jesus for forgiveness, because He's the One that fought for it!! We can ask Jesus into our hearts and lives and have SECURITY in knowing our souls are marked for Him.

Thank You God that You always have a plan! Thank You that where we are weak You are strong and that You know the beginning from the end and there are no surprises with You.

Thank You Lord for Your will in our lives and for giving us the courage and the stamina to move in what we know to be Your direction. Thank You for loving us Lord and for showing us that even through famines, pandemics, catastrophes and death, You still want to guide us and lead us and show us the way to Your peace in order for us to get past ourselves and our logic.

Thank You Lord for being with each person who needs You from front line help to those sheltered and wondering. Lord we want to rest in knowing You will give us help when we look to You – and that when we don't move beyond our means and become dependent on things of this world – YOU can be our Help and our Healing. Help us to trust You more Lord.

We pray for all of our loved ones and friends and those who are hospitalized that You would bring comfort and healing like only You can and that You would get the glory. We thank You for breakthroughs in medicine and for the medical field that works tirelessly to help each and every one in need. Bless them Lord – bless the tired, bless the hurting, bless the little children, bless the older generation who need comfort, bless the service workers and bless those who are trying to help anyway they can. We bless you back – we honor You, we adore You and we long to have Your presence be our front and rear guard and constant in this shifty economy.

We pray for our leaders and for those making decisions for the multitudes – may Your wisdom lead and guide in all things true and it all things right. Thank You for those who are serving others – by serving others, they are serving You.

As people all over the world celebrate and remember the power of the blood of Jesus in Passover and His death and resurrection – I pray Oh God that we would honor You in taking communion as we all can, remembering to come to You first for forgiveness. That in taking communion we say that we will always remember what You have done for us at the cross - and that we look forward to seeing You come back for Your bride! As one of my friends recently pointed out – even though Jesus didn't have a wife on this earth – He is coming back for His bride – how much more awesome is that!!!??!!

Praise You Jehovah God – in the matchless name of our Risen King, Jesus Christ, sitting at Your right hand – Amen!
