Professional Investigative Report
Writing, Contracts and Forms
By Douglas O. Crewse, CFE

A professional investigative practice requires the investigative agency to produce top-flight investigative reports simply because the investigative report is the final end-product of any investigation. This manual details the methods, approaches and techniques used to develop fine investigative reports that will make your investigations stand out. Aside from the techniques you will learn concerning investigative report writing, this manual gives you the investigative contracts and the investigative forms you need to be successful in private investigative practice today.
