

Memories of Clayton Satterlee, RM2 July '64 to June '66

“I was in the OC Division. We had no chief, he retired. The only RM1 we had was sent home ill due to a stunt dive off the bow where he hit something on the way down. I was in charge of the OC Division, but the team did pretty good and won a green C for our communications skill.”

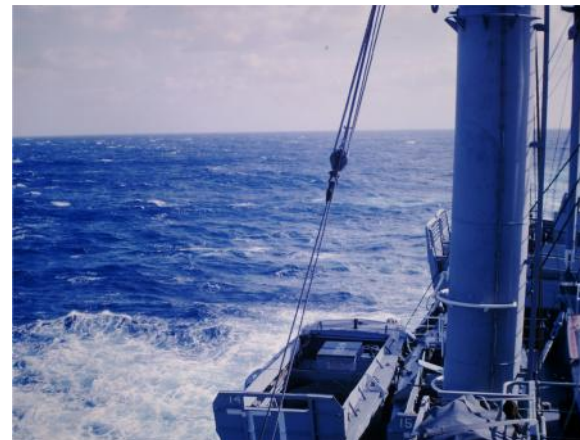

OC Division at ease, O'Neill and Shafter.

Off coast of Cuba during shake down cruise out of the PHL dry dock shipyard where we were outfitted with a bunch of new equipment but received no training on how to use.

Telfair during a Med cruise off port.

Telfair at sea.