

BEE/GAP SPEAKERS LIST
“GARDENERS ADDING POLLINATORS”

Dr. Anita Collins is a retired scientist from USDA, a retired honey bee geneticist and currently an adjunct professor in entomology at Penn State, where she is collaborating on a survey of native bees east of the Mississippi with U S Geologic Survey. frozenbeedoc@verizon.net

Philip Bauerle – Philip is passionate about pollinators, is a beekeeper, has a degree in botany from Wooster College and has been a Penn State Master Gardener since 2013.
Extensionpsu.edu/Philip-bauerle

Sue Dougherty was National Environmental Education Chair for 16 years. Speaks only in the Camp Hill area 717-761-1037

Al Fine has a degree in Horticulture and Agronomy and is a member of the Pittsburgh and Pennsylvania Beekeepers Associations and is an Apiarist. Lives in Washington, PA finefamilyapiary@gmail.com

Wilma Light is a member of the Weeders and Seeders G C and has been giving talks on NATIVE BEES – GARDEN SUPER HEROES” lightgarden515@gmail.com .

Angela McDonnell has been giving talks on “The Plight of the Humble Bee” since the inception of the GCFP BeeGap Program. A member of the Weeders and Seeders G C, angeljam224@comcast.net (724-238-9851 Weeders & Seeders G. C.

Jim Mitnick speaks on Bees in the Pittsburgh Area. He himself, is a Bee Keeper jmitnick@ironwoodlearning.com

Crown Bees has a “Talk and Teach Presentation” and a “Bees and Sustainability Project”
CROWNBEEES.COM

Iris Cisarik will speak on “Colony Collapse Syndrome” and “Becoming a Native Bee Keeper” iriscisarik@verizon.net

IRIS CISARIK
Garden Club Federation of PA
BEE GAP State CHAIR
iriscisarik@verizon.net