

Rose Mary Frontiero

(October 28, 1934-February 21, 2011)

Rose Mary Frontiero (nee Agrusa), 95, of Port Austin, formerly of Sterling Heights, peacefully went home to the Lord on Feb. 21, 2011 while under Hospice care at home with family at her bedside.

She was married Oct. 28, 1934 to Gaspar (Frank) Frontiero of Gloucester, Mass. They moved to Detroit in 1957. He preceded her in death Feb. 10, 1999.

Rose will always be remembered by those who knew her for her joy and love for Jesus that she shared with everyone. Her beautiful spirit made an impression on each person she met and will be missed by all.

She was a loving mother of seven children, sons, Salvatore (Rose Joann) Frontiero of Clinton Township, Peter Frontiero of Port Huron; daughters, Rosalie Krantz of Sterling Heights., Vinnie Zerillo of Boiling Heights., S.C., Mary Jane (Ron) Weisenbach of Port Austin, Julie (Roy) Jones of La Mirada, Calif. and Theresa (John) De Grande of Harrison Township; 20 grandchildren and 44 great-grandchildren. Rose also is survived by her loving sister, Jane (Vincent) Garrisi of Sterling Heights.

She was predeceased by sisters, Josephine (Salvatore) Castiglione, Vincentia (Salvatore) Finazzo and Theresa (Vito) Palozzolo; grandchildren, Natasha Frontiero and Heather Weisenbach.

Memorial services will take place at AH Peters Funeral Home, 32000 Schoenherr at Masonic in Warren. Internment will be at Cadillac Cemetery in Clinton Township.

A special thank you to Heartland Hospice of Bad Axe and her loving care given by her nurses, Tammy, Carrie, Janice and Danielle and her social worker, Kimberly.

Memorials may be offered to family at your discretion.
