Visit London and Dublin on this customized nursing and healthcare program in cooperation with the American Organization for Nursing Leadership. A place of gorgeous natural beauty and equally charming locals, England and Ireland have a dynamic cultural history and strong sense of community. With London as its capital, England has a population of over 55 million. As a comparison Ireland has just over 5 million.

Professional Interaction & Program Highlights

- Meet with medical professionals from a variety of settings in London and Dublin including local hospitals, clinics, and professional organizations.
- Learn about the public healthcare system in the UK (National Health Service) and Ireland (Health Service Executive HSE). Discuss its structure as compared to the healthcare system in the U.S.
- Spend a few days in London exploring the history of nursing and medicine with a focus on learning about Florence Nightingale. Walk in the footsteps of the 'mother of nursing' and discover her life through the places where she lived and worked.
- Travel on this program will provide an opportunity to learn about the history medicine in England with visits to the Wellcome Collection.
- Accompanying guest program – alternate activities will be provided for those not going to meetings.

Focus on Community & Culture

- Visit a traditional English Pub for lunch.
- Take public transport in London one day and travel like a local.
- Enjoy panoramic tours of London and Dublin driving by iconic sites like Big Ben, and the House of Parliament in London and Trinity College campus, Oscar Wilde’s House, and the house of Bram Stoker in Dublin.
- Explore some of the most iconic sites of London including the Tower of London, Buckingham Palace, and Westminster Abbey. His Majesty’s Royal Palace and Fortress of the Tower of London is a historic castle on the north bank of the river Thames.
- Visit Trinity College in Dublin to see the Book of Kells, a treasure dating to the 8th century and one of the most striking manuscripts produced in the Western world.
- Stop for a pint at the Guinness Brewery and learn more about its history in Dublin dating back to the 1700s.
