

Richard Kane

Richard Kane is an active composer, clinician and educator from Pennsylvania. He has written and arranged music for marching band, indoor percussion, jazz band, and symphonic band. He obtained his Bachelor's Degree from Indiana University of Pennsylvania with an emphasis on Music Education. His Master's Degree of Conducting will be awarded in the Spring of 2015. He resides in Pennsylvania with his wife, Christina.