PACZKI, PIEROGI & POLKAS

This tour has changed dramatically from last year and you will love it. We'll start the day off right with a tour of a Polish bakery. We will have a docent led tour of a Polish Catholic Church in Wyandotte where we can ooh & aahh over the architectural splendor. Each traveler will receive a blessed candle. There will be a couple of "surprise" stops to delight and amuse. A local corner grocer specializes in Hungarian and Polish smoked and fresh kielbasa, jerky meat sticks, klazka, hudka and pierogi made fresh in the store. They also have deli items and a small supply of groceries. Authentic Hungarian style Kolbasz and many other old school style meats to choose from daily. Expect to learn about the native costumes. Lunch will be bountiful so don't wear tight clothing. We will stop at a Polish Market where you can buy Czarnina, Pierogi, meats and more. This is a great way to explore fascinating places by your charming Polska guide Rose. There will be plenty of opps for shopping. Best of all... the food – everywhere! Additional docents will add to our understanding of this amazing culture downriver.
