

Mark T. Dubs

Jan 15, 2016

Mark T. Dubs, 49, of Elkton, died Thursday evening, Jan. 14, 2016, at Scheurer Hospital, Pigeon, after suffering a probable heart attack.

He was born Sept. 2, 1966, in Pigeon, to Walter and Connie (Williams) Dubs, and grew up on a farm south of Elkton. Mark was a 1985 graduate of Laker High School. He went on to college to further his education, receiving a bachelor's degree from Saginaw Valley State University.

Mark had worked at Huron Tool in Bad Axe, prior to becoming a driver for J. B. Hunt Trucking. In 2004, he took a position at Hunter Lumber in Harbor Beach, where he was currently employed.

Mark was a member of the Community of Christ Church, Owendale. He enjoyed hunting, fishing, working on computers and campfires. He was a big Star Wars enthusiast and loved being around family and friends.

Surviving are his parents, Walter and Connie Dubs of Elkton; his loving friend, Dawn English and her children, Brandon and Randy Ricker; siblings, Michael (Cynthia) Dubs of Owendale, Kimberly (Ben) Werth of Elkton and Jennifer Dubs of Royal Oak; five nieces and nephews; and one great-nephew.

Visitation will be from 2 to 7 p.m. Sunday, Jan. 17, at Champagne Funeral Chapel, Elkton with a short service beginning at 7 p.m.

Memorial gifts may be given to the family, and words of condolence may be shared at www.cfcElkton.com.
