

The Tide is Gonna Turn!

The Tide is going to turn! You can be sure of that! As I was preparing to write today's message I felt the Lord wanting to speak very specifically about where you are today. You are not a loser, you are the winner. Things may not currently be going the way you want, but the tide is gonna turn.

Right now, you might feel like the enemy is attacking you through circumstances or through your mind, body or emotions- but the tide is gonna turn. You are in a spiritual battle, whether you believe it or not, and this battle has been raging since the beginning of creation.

"We do not wrestle against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this age, against spiritual hosts of wickedness in the heavenly places" (Ephesians 6:12).

There are just some things in life that you are not immune to and there will always be a battle surrounding the purposes of God in your life. The Word of the Lord is right and true and you live in a society that is filled with lies. These lies have a way of diluting the truth. The world in which you live is filled with an absence of truth. When you are led by anything other than truth, it is a lie. Can I say that again? When we are led by anything other than the truth- IT IS A LIE!

Your flesh will always try to resist the truth. The lie will always try to snare or trap in us. There are days you must battle harder to hold on to what you know is true. It's really important to understand that your actions generally follow what you believe.

Today the Lord wants to shine His Light into certain areas of your life concerning what you believe. Your actions speak louder than words, so what you believe can be seen in how you act. It doesn't matter what you are faced with- Jesus has already made provision for you.

He is greater than everything or anything in this life. Friends, the Lord still lives today. He is not the great I was, but is the "Great I AM." He loves you completely and totally. His Truth is the light shining into your life, showing you who God is, how much He loves you. He wants to show you how to draw deeper in Him, and what He is really like.
